

Pacific Kills Homeowners Discuss Creek Dump Problem

The regular membership meeting of the Pacific Hills Home Owners, Inc., was held Monday, July 14, at 8 p.m. in the WALTERIA School.

J. John, treasurer, presided over the meeting, it was announced. E. Schooner presented the problem of the dumping of trash into the creek running through the residential area. The home owners group is seeking a solution to this nuisance.

John pointed out that the traffic control lanes on 101 Highway and Newton St. are painted in, and the question arose as to whether there would be raised concrete strips.

During the evening, Mrs. I. Radtke presented the press clippings for the publicity book she is handling.

Mrs. Rowena Menger asked for suggestions for future club programs, and a Fourth of July celebration for next year was discussed.

The new membership cards were distributed. There will be a membership drive in the near future, it was disclosed. Membership meetings are held the second Monday of every third month.

A film entitled "Party Lines" was shown, and refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Herbie Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Case of 3762 W. 243th St., has been named one of two contestants in a national art contest to win a free vacation at Red Ryder's ranch in Pagosa Springs, Colo.

First step toward the free vacation was winning first place and a $25 defense bond early this year in the art contest sponsored by a breakfast food company.

Herbie and his mother will leave by plane August 4 to Albuquerque, N. M., where Red Ryder will meet Herbie and the other winner, a girl from Louisiana, and escort them to his ranch.

Herbie's prize also includes a complete western outfit for himself and his mother.

Herbie has been winning art contests for years, although he has never taken formal courses in art techniques.

Stabled near his home is a white horse, with saddle and bridle—won last year in another national contest.

Within the last two years he has won three bicycles, blue ribbons for exhibitions and an honorable mention in a New York show for juveniles.

In fact, of all the contests he has entered, he has lost only one, his mother reports.

Herbie, who had his 14th birthday this week end, started to draw when he was three years old, Mrs. Case said, when his carpenter father lined his bedroom with black boards.

This week Herbie expects to take his first art course, a UCLA extension course under Cesar Harnandez of Redondo Beach.

Today he will go to Beverly Hills, where he has been invited to tour the studios of which Red Ryder comic books are drawn.

Shopping in Goodwill stores is smart buying. You help the physically-handicapped and you save money. Receipts from Goodwill store sales are used to pay wages of 500 physically-handicapped men and women employed by Goodwill.

America can be justly proud of its more than 100 non-profit Goodwill Industry plants throughout the nation. Last year Goodwill gave ten million hours of employment to 14,465 physically-handicapped men and women.

Walteria Boy Wins Free Vacation in Art Contest

A 14-year-old Walteria boy this week added another laurel to his growing list of art awards.

Herbie Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Case of 3762 W. 243th St., has been named one of two contestants in a national art contest to win a free vacation at Red Ryder's ranch in Pagosa Springs, Colo.

the inside story on PAINT....

There is no saving in buying cheap paint. Why waste time in applying it. Good paint is not cheap.

Quality paints are sold at accepted standard prices. This is done to maintain the constant superior quality found in PITTSBURGH Paints.

PITTSBURGH Paints are made right here in Torrance in a large factory equipped with laboratories and research chemists working constantly on new products, and ways to improve the old ones. Ask your neighbor who works there. He will tell you of the skill, care and planning that goes into a can of PITTSBURGH PAINT.

WE SELL ONLY QUALITY PAINTS, and every can is 100% guaranteed. When you buy paint, you are buying an investment in the future.

STOP IN and talk over your paint problems and leave with the assurance that you will receive complete satisfaction for the time and money spent.

Sincerely Yours,
Signed,
