

2 Local Acts Featured on TV Tonight

"Your Town's Talent" this evening on television station KTTV, will feature two groups of young performers from Torrance.

Winning spots on the show at a talent try-out last Friday evening were the Mello-Aires, a seven-piece dance band, and a novelty song and dance duo, composed of Frances Palumbo, dancer, and Buddy Powers, vocalist.

The TV show, channel 11, at 9:30 p.m. tonight, is sponsored by the Southern California Pharmaceutical Association.

Each act on the show will be presented with an engraved trophy.

Six acts were selected during the recent try-out from among the entire Harbor Area.

BUFFER STOLEN

A buffer and grinder valued at $20 was stolen from the Flying A service station over the week-end, according to Torrance Police.

The Mello-Aires is composed of Ross Sciarrotta, trombone; Ray Parrish, saxophone and clarinet; Frank Sciarrotta, trumpet; Tad Dale, drums; Mickey Van Deventer, piano; Sid Larson, bass. Sindy Young is the vocalist.

Grand Canyon Honeymoon For Newly-Wed Couple

Wichita Falls, Texas, will be the new home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Armandariz, who were married recently in a formal ceremony at the Nativity Catholic Church.

After a brief honeymoon in Grand Canyon, Colorado, the couple will report at Wichita Falls, where the young groom is stationed. He is a first class private in the Air Force.

Formerly Irene Elizabeth Marino, the bride was escorted up the aisle on July 26th, by her father Manuel Marino.

Orchids and lilies-of-the-valley composed her bouquet.

Maid of honor, Annette Castener, was gowned in pale blue satin. She carried a bouquet of carnations.

Rudy Marino, brother of the bride, served as best man.

A reception in the church hall followed the ceremony.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Armandariz of El Nido.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Marino, of 24133 Park St., Waveria, are the parents of the bride. The young couple graduated from Torrance High School in 1951.

Dinner Meet

"Very special entertainment" has been planned for the next dinner meeting of the Torrance Chapter of the National Business and Professional Women's Club, according to Mrs. H. Parrish, secretary.

The meeting will be held August 18th, at Irons Cottage By the Sea. Hostesses for the evening will be Gertrude Irons, Virginia Beck, Margery King, and Evelyn Lynch.

Guests from Gardena chapter will be Helen McBroom and Mary Featherstone, Mrs. Parrish announced.
