

JayCette Dinner Dance Features Cotton 'n Jeans

Gay cotton dresses and blue jeans will be high fashion at a dinner-dance being held by the JayCettes Saturday evening, August 16, at Atteberry's Barn.

Dinner will be served smorgasbord style, and dancing to jukebox music will follow. The affair, open to JayCee members and their guests, is the first social function held by the new JayCettes.

Chow bell will ring at 7:30, according to Mrs. D. Carpenter, club officer. Menu features spaghetti, garlic bread, salads, dessert, and coffee.

The decorations committee reports that it is busy gathering corn stalks and rounding up old-fashioned carriage lamps to give a festive fall air to the dance.

Special event of the evening will be the awarding of a ham donated by Jim Dandy Market, and a 3-pound can of coffee donated by A&P Store. Tickets will be sold at the door.

DECORATORS—Mr. and Mrs. Don Carpenter take time out from their job of arranging corn-stalk decorations for the dinner-dance being sponsored by the Torrance JayCettes, at Atteberry's Barn Saturday night.
