

Girl Scouts Hold Annual Summer Fete

Sixteen members of Brownie Troop No. 236 held their regular summer meeting Tuesday afternoon in the yard of one of the troop's co-leaders, Mrs. M. Crossman.

The girls prepared their own lunch of hamburger sandwiches on "bunny burners," a little "atove" fashioned by the girls out of coffee cans, according to Mrs. F. Phillips, publicity chairman.

The troop, sponsored by the Torrance Elementary School P-TA, is led by Mrs. M. Castle. Mrs. N. Drazkowski is another co-leader.

Parish Holds Dance, Hot Dog Roast

Hot dogs roasted over smoldering embers is on the menu for Saturday evening, August 16, at 8 p.m., at St. Catherine Labouré Parish, Redondo Beach Blvd., east of Prairie Ave.

The evening will be devoted to dancing, singing, and weiner roasting, according to Mrs. John McDannel, publicity chairman.

Hosted by the Holy Name Society, the event is open to the public. A donation will be asked, Mrs. McDannel said.

1,025 Enrolled For Six-week Summer School

A total of 1025 elementary summer school students waved goodbye to the classrooms last Friday for a comparatively short summer vacation.

Average daily attendance in seven Torrance schools for the six-week summer term was set at 855, according to school officials.

Largest attendance was at Torrance Elementary School, where 173 children enrolled. Other enrollments were: Seaside, 166; Fern Avenue, 154; Perry, 109; Waleria, 108; North Torrance, 102; and Crenshaw, 42.

Waleria Woman Wins Side of Beef

Mrs. Reba Nobles, 3317 Raintree Drive, Pacific Hills, won a side of beef in a drawing held last Saturday under the sponsorship of the mothers of members of Girl Scout troop No. 398.

The troop realized a profit of $405.50 from the sale of tickets for the drawing, according to Mrs. Don Menger, co-leader of the troop.

The money will be used to finance a one-week camping trip on Santa Catalina Island for the 15-member troop and its sponsors, Mrs. Meger and Mrs. Robert Waegner.

Prizes for the greatest number of tickets sold went to Loretta Ide, who won $5 as the top prize, and to Moreen Gordon and Loretta Busch, who won $4 and $3 respectively.

Ground Observer Crew Forming

A ground observer corp to serve Torrance, Gardena, Hawthorne, and five other beach cities, is being formed now, according to George Powell, assistant director of civic defense for Torrance.

Personnel is required to man a 24-hour watch station located near the Torrance-Gardena boundary line. Anyone who is interested in serving in the corp may contact Powell at 1754 Torrance Blvd., it has been announced.

Correction

Due to a typographical error a news story listed Dr. C. R. Houske as having taken his training at South Dakota College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. This is incorrect. Item should have read: Dr. Houske had his pre-medical training at South Dakota State College. He graduated from the Los Angeles College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

A veteran of World War II, Dr. Houske was a member of the 34th Division.

Three Tried in Family Quarrel

Three defendants in a family squabble will appear for trial this afternoon in the court of City Judge Otto Willette.

James M. Hale, City bus driver, will answer a charge of battery filed by his wife, who alleged that he assaulted her on August 11.

Dwyer C. Rebadow, 33, of 1227 Crenshaw Blvd., and Gordon C. Poapst, 44, of the Park Hotel, became involved when they apparently tried to take Hale to task. They will face charges of disturbing the peace and inflicting a battery upon Hale.

Mock Disaster

Assistant director of civil defense George Powell was yesterday afternoon notified via police radio that he was needed immediately at the Inglewood civil defense control center.

The summons was part of a dry-run test of civil defense functions conducted throughout the beach cities.
