

THS Graduate Is Finalist in Beauty Show

Pert brunette Bonne Galloway will represent the Torrance installation of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. in their national queen beauty contest.

The 19-year-old price clerk in the local plant was selected as one of eight finalists in the contest held annually by the company.

Photographs of the finalists will be judged later this year by professional photographers and artists.

The local plant won first place with their entrant in 1949, and has placed second in two other contests, plant officials disclose.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Galloway, 2165 Sierra St., Bonnie graduated from Torrance High School with the class of '50.

Boys See Rams, Redskin Game at Coliseum Tonight

More than 250 boys who participated in the Torrance Recreation softball league during the summer will be transported by 50 automobiles to the Coliseum to see the Rams vs. Redskins football game tonight at 8:15 p.m.

The tickets for the event were donated by the Los Angeles Times Boys Club Charity.

Torrance Recreation Dept. is sponsoring the trip and the transportation is being provided through the courtesy of local service clubs.

Her well-stacked measurements are 5 ft., 5 in. tall, her weight is 110 pounds.

Brunette hair sets off olive skin and big black eyes, it was reported.

Mrs. Younger At GOP Meet Here Monday

Mrs. Mildred Younger will be guest speaker at a meeting next Monday night of the Torrance Republicans Club.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Fern Ave. School, it was announced today.

The club, disclosed that Bob Mrs. Arthur Woodcock, official Finch, Republican candidate for Congress from the 17th District, would also appear on the program.

The entire nation saw Mrs. Younger on television when she seconded the nomination of Governor Earl Warren for the presidency at the Republican National Convention in Chicago.

She served on the platform committee with Senator Richard Nixon at the convention. Currently she is a member of the Los Angeles County Central Committee and the State Central Committee, it was revealed.

Pet Show at Avalon Park

Big pets, little pets, and unusual pets will be featured at the 2nd Annual Pet Parade being staged at Avalon-Sepulveda Park on Friday, August 29, at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Dorothy Kemper, park director, announced this week that children under 16 years of age are urged to enter their pets in the competition. There will be several divisions with prizes for each, it was revealed.

Schools Get $103,790

First installment of $103,790, was this received by the Board of Education under Federal Law 874, which provides financial aid to schools in areas where population has increased sharply due to defense and war activity.

Total payment expected this year will be $153,764, according to Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools.

Two Tried on Battery Charge

Assault charges against Gordon Poapst, 44, of the Park Hotel, filed by his alleged victim James M. Hale, of 24619 Madison Ave., will be heard this afternoon by City Judge Otto B. Willett.

Poapst appeared in court last Thursday for preliminary hearing, but Judge Willett had him arrested for drunkenness and contempt of court.

Dwyer C. Rebadow, 33, of 1227 Crenshaw Blvd., also charged with battery against Hale, was arrested Friday on a warrant by Chief of Police John Stroth, after he failed to appear in court on Thursday.
