

Farewell Party Given for Mrs. Vivian Watts

A farewell garden party last Friday honored Mrs. Vivian Watts, an employee of the Torrance Pacific Telephone Company, who leaves this week for San Diego.

Sponsored by her co-workers, the party was held at the home of Mrs. Mina V. Jennings, 2272 Torrance Blvd., Mrs. Watts will transfer to the San Diego branch of the telephone company. Her husband is in business in the southern city.

The farewell party featured a pot luck buffet, including sandwiches, relishes, fruit punch, coffee, and a chocolate layer cake baked by Mrs. Minnie Clough. Colored lights and Chinese lanterns were strung about the garden.

Tables were decorated in green and yellow, with lilies and foliage for centerpieces, according to Mrs. Jennings.

Mrs. Watts was given a carved shelf for her collection of ceramic pixies, it was revealed. She also received perfume and handkerchiefs as going-away gifts. Thirty-five guests were present to wish Mrs. Watts the best of luck, Mrs. Jennings said.

When putting air in the tires, National Automobile Club reminds that the spare locked in the trunk be checked as well.

Airmen Meet Tomorrow at Beach Club

South Bay Squadron of the Air Force Association will meet tomorrow night at 8 p.m. at the Hollywood Riviera Club, Squadron Commander Clarence A. Hanson, announced today.

The meeting will be open to members of the Air Force Association, their families, and to all veterans of the U. S. Air Force, Hanson revealed.

Cecil R. King, member of Congress of the House Ways and Means Committee, will be guest speaker.

Organized three years ago, the South Bay Squadron of the AFA, a national non-profit independent airpower organization, now has a membership of nearly 200.

All members are Air Force veterans of World War II or the Korean conflict who desire to keep themselves and the public at large abreast of developments in the field of aviation.

Membership in the local squadron includes residents of Torrance, Lomita, Palos Verdes Estates, as well as Gardena, Lawndale, Hawthorne, Lennox, El Segundo and Redondo, Hermosa and Manhattan Beach.

'Y' Variety Show Held In October

Torrance YMCA will sponsor the Second Annual Community Musical and Variety Revue on Oct. 2, 3, and 4, it was announced this week by Executive Secretary Stan Roberts.

Geller Productions of Hollywood will again be in charge of the show, which will be held in the Torrance High School Auditorium, he said.

Sam Levy of the YMCA Board of Managers is in charge of the program brochures. Al Turner and Gil Derouin also of the YMCA Board will announce the plans for the ticket sales in the near future.

John Steinbaugh, Past-Chairman of the YMCA Board, is in charge of procuring the talent for this production. Anyone wishing to be a part of this show is asked to contact the Torrance YMCA.

Mr. Leon Drew, General Manager of Geller Productions, is trying to line up Gare Harley to direct this production. He directed "Three Nights in Torrance," last year's production, it was revealed.
