

Local Telephone Employee Ends 30 Years of Service

Mrs. Philomena V. Jennings, 2272 Torrance Blvd., has retired from the communications industry after more than three decades of service, it was announced today by Manager A. B. Smith of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Clerk in the traffic department of the company here, Mrs. Jennings started her telephone career as an operator in San Francisco. More than 40 friends and fellow employees attended a recent retirement dinner for Mrs. Jennings, when she was commended for her thirty years of service and presented a cash gift on behalf of her co-workers.
