Bids Due Wednesday on $99,159 Crenshaw Link

Bids for the extension of Crenshaw Blvd. between Lomita Blvd. and Pacific Coast Highway, will be received and opened by the county board of supervisors next Wednesday, it was announced today.
The project, to cost an estimated $99,159, is an important link in a master plan of improvements which will make Crenshaw a major arterial extending from the Portuguese Bend area to downtown Los Angeles.
The new roadway is to follow the Torrance-Lomita boundary from Lomita Blvd. to about 253rd St. Then it will veer in a southwesterly direction through an unused section of Torrance Municipal Airport to intersect with the highway at a point about a quarter of a mile east of where the present Crenshaw terminates. There it is to join with a roadway now being extended over the Palos Verdes Hills.
Completion of the section, complete with curbs and gutters, is due by the end of the year. Meanwhile, the county has allocated $122,000 for extension of

Two Injured In Collision

Major injuries resulted for two men here last Tuesday morning when their cars collided near the intersection of 190th St. and Hawthorne Blvd., according to the records of the Torrance Police Dept.
Stanley W. Watts, 19, 4069 Bluff St., Torrance, and Robert E. Wiley, 22, 1147 Lagoon St., Wilmington, were taken to Harbor General Hospital in an ambulance following the accident.
According to police, Watts was driving on the wrong side of the street when the accident occurred. He was issued a citation, it was reported.
