Unique Breakfast Is First Social Of Madrona P-TA

Members of the Madrona Ave. Elementary School P-TA held their first social of the year last Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Smiley, the newly-elected president.

The party was a "come as you are breakfast," where doughnuts and coffee were served.

More than 35 members responded to the occasion in an effort to raise money for the coming year's work, it was announced by club officials.

Plans Made for Luncheon by P-TA

The Parent-Teacher Association of Seaside Elementary School held a Board Meeting in the teachers' room at the school building on the evening of Wednesday, September 3, at 7:30 p.m., it was announced today.

A tentative outline for the year's program was presented along with topics for the monthly meetings of the organization.

At this time also, plans were formulated for the annual luncheon given by the parents for the teachers prior to the first day of school, according to club officials.

White House Visit

Dr. and Mrs. Garth Myers of Torrance, recently visited the Little White House at Warm Springs, Ga., where the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt lived part time and where he died in 1945.
