

PARENTS, TOO GO BACK TO SCHOOL NOW

This fall will find thousands of American parents, as well as their children, returning to school! They may do their homework alongside their offspring—some even working on the same subjects.

Statistics show that more than 20,000,000 adults will be enrolling in a wide assortment of classes this fall.

Subjects will range from scientific farming to oil painting and philosophy. One quality, these adult students all have in common, is a desire for self-improvement, for economic or cultural gain.

Adult education courses are

New Pottery Shop Open To Public

A recent addition to the unique shopping center next to the Fish Shanty restaurant in Waveria is Ceramics by Mel.

Visitors are welcome to go through the manufacturing shop and watch pottery being made, all the way from the raw clay to the beautiful, glossy finished product.

available in almost every town in the United States. Classes are conducted in schools, colleges, libraries, museums, and town halls. Thousands more study through home correspondence courses.

The complete line of pottery and gift ware is on display in the attractive show room.

Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Mel Anderson, the firm was formerly located in Redondo Beach.

Anderson, who is also an instructor of ceramics in the South Bay Union High School, disclosed that this industry has grown the last five years from a hobby in a one-car garage to this new plant. The new setup offers to this community an industry which will attract both local and tourist trade.
