

Barbara Gregory Wed In Candlelight Ceremony

Beautiful white chrysanthemums and tall, glowing tapers graced the aisles and altar of the Nativity Catholic Church when Barbara Joan Gregory and Dennis Leo Lynch were joined in matrimony there last Saturday evening.

More than 350 guests witnessed the candle-light double-ring ceremony, officiated by Rev. Patrick McGuinness.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father Sidney Kasden of Palos Verdes, chose as her gown a Cahill original of candle-light satin appliqued with Chantilly lace, and featuring a Cathedral train. A coronet of seed pearls held in place her illusion net finger-tip length veil.

Mrs. Sharon Lynch, sister-in-law of the groom, was matron of honor. She and brides maids, Mary Cosgrove, Diane West, Dolores Mueller, and Celeste Goudeau, were all clad alike in tangerine net and satin. They wore large hats of net in harmonizing colors, and carried bouquets of spider chrysanthemums in fall colors.

Robert Lynch, brother of the groom, served as best man. Guests were seated by ushers, Jason Williams, Augusto Soux, Robert Herman, and Arthur Campbell.

Mrs. Sidney Kasden, mother of the bride, was gowned in a Howard Greer creation of blue-gray chiffon. The benedict's mother, Mrs. Andrew Lynch wore dusty rose crepe.

The Palos Verdes Country Club was the scene of the reception that followed the ceremony.

After their return from a two-week honeymoon, the couple will reside in Hollywood Riviera.

The bride is a graduate of Ramona Convent of the Holy Names, and attended USC. She is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

The benedict, a former U. S. Marine, attended State Teacher's College of South Dakota. He is in business with Mr. and Mrs. Kasden, owners of La Tienda Antiques in Waverly. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lynch of Downey.
