

Inter-Service Club Dinner Held Monday

More than 150 members of Torrance service clubs gathered in the American Legion Hall Monday evening as the Optimist Club hosted the Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis clubs in a semi-annual inter-service club dinner meeting.

Bill Freeman, "the man with a thousand voices," was featured on the program, according to Forrest W. Meyers, president of the host club.

Dick Miller of the Lions Club emceed the event, Al Ewalt conducted the community singing, and Rev. Cecil J. England read the invocation. Other entertainment included singing by one of the barber shop quartets sponsored by the Torrance chapter of SPEBS-QSA.

Little Boy Sets Fire to House

Four-year-old Jerry Goslin, 926 Teri St., came in for a good spanking Saturday, when he struck matches in a closet of his home, and set fire to the building. Torrance firemen extinguished the blaze, and Jerry's daddy extinguished the young man's tendency toward pyromania. No one was injured by the fire.
