P-TA Membership Drive Nets 816 New Members

Mrs. Bradford's third grade class at Torrance Elementary School received first prize in the annual P-TA membership drive stated Mrs. George Crabtree, membership chairman of the P-TA. First prize was $5 and the second prize of $3 went to Mr. Shaner's fourth grade. Not to be outdone, the first graders won third prize of $2. Mrs. Davies is the first grade teacher. Mrs. Crabtree announced that 816 persons have joined the P-TA in this two-week drive but, she stated, the drive is not over. Anyone who wishes to join the P-TA during the school year may do so. All they need do is to send their 50c with their child to the school.

SLATE 2 FILMS FOR EXPECTANT MOTHERS' CLASS

"Labor and Childbirth," a film on hospital procedures for the prospective mother, will be shown at the Expectant Mothers' Class in the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson Street, Thursday, November 6 at 1:30 p.m., according to Dr. Jules Comroe, District Health Officer.

A second film, "Prenatal Care" has also been booked for the same day.

While the November 6 meeting is the fourth in this series of Expectant Mothers' Classes, anyone interested in the care of the prospective mother and new babies is invited to this or any other of the classes, Dr. Comroe said. There is no registration fee as this is an educational service of the County Health Department.
