

HAPPY COUPLE—The former Miss Barbara Ann Fiesel and her husband Nick Angelich, pose smilingly as they cut their wedding cake following their marriage last Sunday at the Calvary Presbyterian Church of Wilmington.

Persons who volunteer or are called for military training duty are given job protection rights by the new draft act.

American War Mothers Hold Regular Meeting

The local chapter of American War Mothers will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Wednesday evening, Nov. 12. All officers and members are urged to be present, as this is the last meeting before election and installation, and there are a number of important matters to be discussed, according to Jeanette King, president, who will preside at the meeting.

Disheveled girl, just back from date with her roommate: "That's what I get for going out with a soldier — combat fatigue!"

Bags Deer, Elk

A five-point deer and a 500-pound elk were the two trophies brought home recently by Charles Reed of 2740 Gramercy Ave., who returned last week from a 10-day hunting trip in the mountains of Colorado. Reed was accompanied as far as Colorado by his wife, who went on by air to Houston, Texas to visit her family. Reed, who is owner of Torrance TeeVee Store, was for 15 years a Bakersfield police officer, and for seven years he was superintendent of the Kern County Bureau of Identification.
