Council Gets Tract Maps

One hundred and thirty-two homes will be built west of Crenshaw Blvd., between 182nd St. and 185th St., if the city council approves tract maps OK'd by the planning commission last week. The map was submitted by Louis Laramore. Approval is subject to proper fill and drainage as recommended by the city engineer.

bakery operated by Van de Kamp's. Three tremendous parking lots covering several acres are available to shoppers. The new store has large warehousing facilities which keep an ample supply of fresh merchandise continually flowing to the shelves. Fresh meats are kept in one of the largest refrigerated storage rooms ever constructed in a supermarket. All fresh meats are cut and packaged at the store as they are needed.

TV Show to Star Local Floral Artist

The TV spotlight will shine momentarily tonight, Nov. 13 with the presentation of KTTV's full-hour telecast of "The Exotic Story of Fibre Flower Making" from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Instrumental in the local focus of the TV cameras tonight is Ellen's Shop, 23433 So. Western Ave., A beautiful floral design created by Ellen M. Wright of this shop has been selected as one of the featured items on the show which will originate from Temple City, Calif.

Allene, internationally recognized floral design authority, and KTTV's own Roy Maypole, acting as master-of-ceremonies, will be co-starred in the telecast which will see the presentation of many celebrities who make the craft of fibre flower making their hobby.

be among the first served. John Melville, Mayfair executive, disclosed that his staff will turn out in a body to support this worthwhile fund raising affair. Mayfair is donating all milk and cream used at the breakfast.

An hourly invocation will be delivered by representatives of local churches on the morning of the breakfast, and a surprise entertainment feature is also planned, according to Flomert.

Ticket Sales
Gra-Y Boys of Torrance are selling tickets now, trying to win the cash prize offered by Charles Mullen and Bernard Lee of the ticket sales committee.

"If these boys don't get to you," Mullen said today, "please feel free to come down to the auditorium and purchase your tickets the morning of the breakfast."

Al Turner of the food committee reported that they are preparing for over 1000 persons so there will be plenty of cakes, sausage, coffee and orange juice. The proceeds of this community event go for the support of the Torrance YMCA in its work with the youth groups and activities.

Robert H. Finch, unsuccessful candidate for the 17th district congressional seat, today issued the following statement:
"I feel pleased and humble about the magnificent showing we made against overwhelming odds. I offer my best wishes to our elected representative and trust he will support our new administration in accordance with the expressed desire of our citizenry."
"Again, I wish to thank the many hundreds of workers who toiled so long and so valiantly in my behalf."
