

Olson-Sciarrotta Rites Performed

Graceful tapers and yellow chrysanthemums graced the main sanctuary of the First Methodist Church last Saturday for the wedding of Miss Ann Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olson of 1617 Cota ave., and Frank Sciarrotta.

Rev. John Taylor officiated the double-ring ceremony, which took place at 2:30 p.m.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a dress of layered nylon tulle over nylon net. The underskirt was of candlelight satin. Bodice and skirt were trimmed with bands of delicate Chantilly lace, and a deep ruffle of pleated nylon tulle edged the skirt and full train. Her bouquet was fashioned of white bovardia with white orchid center.

Maid of Honor

Alice Olson, sister of the bride, attended as Maid of Honor wearing a gown of open blue nylon net over taffeta trimmed with imported Chantilly lace. She carried yellow rosebuds in a fan-shaped bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Ann Marie Bishop, Mary Jo Vaughn, Mickey Van Deventer, Pat Sciarrotta, and Barbara Mondor. Ice blue gowns fashioned like the Maid of Honor's were worn by the bridesmaids. They carried fan-shaped bouquets of yellow and blue mums, and wore headbands of small yellow mums.

Flower Girls

Tiny Cherie Tyler and Maria Sciarrotta were flower girls. Gregory and Chris Sciarrotta served as ring-bearers.

Ross Sciarrotta, brother of the groom, was best man. Guests were seated by Wendell Vaughn, Emmet De Bennett, Don Collingsworth, Don Sciarrotta and Dale Whistler. Ray Parrish and Hubert Tyler greeted guests at the door of the church. Henry Pupkoff and Jerry Sciarrotta lit the tapers.

Before the ceremony, Grace Laferty, soprano, rendered two songs, "The Lord's Prayer" and "With This Ring I Thee Wed."

Reception

Following the ceremony more than 200 guests feted the newlyweds at a reception in the parlor of the church. A three-tiered wedding cake, coffee, tea, and punch were served.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Olson chose a gown of cocoa brown lace over light brown taffeta. Her accessories were of rose and brown. Mrs. Sciarrotta wore a gown of changeable blue and rose taffeta. Her accessories were of black and rose.

The former Miss Olson is a graduate of Torrance High school. She attended Long Beach City College, and is a dance instructor.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sciarrotta, of 1630 Beech Ave., graduated from a Cleveland, Ohio, high school, and attended Long Beach City College. He is employed as a painter.

Following their honeymoon at Palm Springs, the couple will reside at 1014 Sierra Place.

War Reporter to Speak at Local Church on Sunday

Dr. Douglas Bushby, world traveler, evangelist, and foreign correspondent, will speak in both morning and evening services of the Torrance Foursquare Church next Sunday, according to Pastor Rev. William Clayton.

At the morning service, 10:45 a.m., Dr. Bushby will tell of his four week visit to the Isle of Lewis in the Hebrides near Scotland.

His subject for the evening service, 7:45 p.m., will be "Revival—The Answer to Communism." Rev. Clayton has extended an invitation to the public to attend the lectures.

Dr. Bushby has been instructed by the Far Eastern Command to report to Tokyo, Japan, to make final arrangements to serve as a war correspondent for the Christian press, it was reported.

A graduate of Scotch College, Tasmania, Dr. Bushby began his career as a professional printer. He abandoned his athletic career to enter Melbourne Bible Institute and later the Moore Theological College in Sidney, Australia.
