P-TA Leaders 'Bill of Rights' Plan Regular Topic of Local Monthly Meet P-TA Meeting

dena-Wilmington Council were in ation will be held at 2 p.m. today, attendance at a meeting held by December 11, instead of 10 a.m. Mrs. James A. Gauley, council of Rights" will be the featured topic, with a discussion by two 183rd Street, recently.

In order that unit presidents might have the opportunity to meet together informally to discuss common problems and to develope friendliness and understanding among the unit associations to the interest of the executive standing among the unit association of the executive standing among the unit cuss common problems and to de- in keeping with the season. larly the first Tuesday of each month, at the home of a unit president.

P-TA presidents attending the meeting were Mesdames Glenn Bliss, * Amestoy; Alfred Barkan, Carson Street; George Foster, Catskill Avenue; Michael Foxhaven, Chapman Avenue; Naboru Nakatani, Del Amo; W. A. Blacker, Dominguez; Wallace Brown, Gulf Avenue; Claud Hill, 186th Street and Frank Andrews, 135th

Text of Sermon Based on Book Of St. Matthew

Based on the 22nd verse of the 6th Chapter of St. Matthew, " . . if therefore, thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light," Earl D. Barnum explains his sermon, "The 'I' That Sees "When we perceive the Unity of Good, we shall perceive it in its entirety, an undivided whole. But if our eye be filled with evil, we shall remain in darkness.

Services of the Church of Religious Science are held each Sunday at the Redondo Beach Masonic Temple, Ruby and Catalina Streets, beginning at 10:45 a.m. with a fifteen-minute period of meditation and organ music by MacDonald Scott. Mr. William Beckman is soloist this week, and will be accompanied by Mr. Scott at the organ.

The three services for young people, the Metateens, the Children's Church, and the Nursery are held in the Temple concurrently with the adult services.

Holiday Activities Planned by P-TA

The executive board of the North Torrance Elementary PTA held its regular meeting at the school on Wednesday, December 3, at 1 p.m.

The group is planning a Christmas party during the holiday vacation. In charge of arrangements are; Mesdames William Sale, chairman, Clark Harris, M. J. Walker, Ralph McBee, and L. W. Van DeVort.

Mrs. Robert Payne, room representative chairman, announced that the plans made for the school room parties to be held on Dec. 12 had been completed.
