

Brass Foundry Expands Facility

Construction of additional facilities to house equipment and machinery at the Torrance Brass Foundry will be completed within a few days, according to Fred Cook, personnel director of the firm. The building, which contains 7,200 square feet of floor space, is being built of Soule prefabricated steel. It is valued at $14,400, according to city building dept. records. The plant is located at 1825 West 213th st.
