Bowling Championship Won By Torrrance Moose Lodge

A resourceful and persistent Loyal Order of Moose team today wears the first championship crown of the Torrance Recreation Department Bowling league, thanks to Henry Burke's valiant Lions No. 2 squad, aggressors in a form of fratricide, who knocked off their club brothers in four important league-closing games this week.

Won First Game Gordon Jones and his Moose curate and fram-filling bowling of a Lutheran men's team, won their first game, and deciding game as Attend Giant the final results later revealed, but then went down to dismal defeat in the next three contests. Only the last-frame excellent rolling of Kenny Rupp, Merlin Cook 721, sponsored by the First Bapand Fred Lydy, a frequent occurrence during the league's 28 weeks, prevented the Moose and Lions No. 1 teams from going into a play-off.
