

Nursery School Holds Pot-Luck Dinner Meeting

The first meeting of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School for the new year was held Monday, January 11. Highlights of the affair were a pot-luck dinner and presentation of a new slate of officers.

School business was discussed and the director, Mrs. Foyle, led an open discussion of nursery school routine and procedures for the benefit of the new members as well as the veterans.

A business meeting of school officers will be held Friday evening, January 13, at the home of Mrs. Charles Moore.

'Y' TITLE AWARDED J. MOORE

The Torrance Hi-Y Boy of the Year is 17-year-old Jerry Moore, 176 West 24th street, Lomita, who was awarded the coveted title on Monday, January 4, over several other high school youths nominated for the honor by their Hi-Y clubs.

Young Moore, who is secretary of the Narbonne High-Y club, represented the Torrance area in district eliminations on Tuesday, January 12, against winners from San Pedro, Wilmington, Gardena and South Gate YMCAs.

If Jerry Moore is named winner in the district competition he will compete with four other district finalists for the Los Angeles Hi-Y Boy of the Year title.

Mothers Meet With Mrs. P. Burch

A meeting of the El Nido School PTA room mothers was held on Friday, January 8, at the home of Mrs. Paul Burch, 18313 Roslin avenue, record book chairman.

The room mothers meet on the second Friday of every month in order to stimulate interest and make plans for the year, cooperating with the principal and parents in a combined effort to encourage active participation in parent-teacher work and to encourage interest in future leadership.

The February meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. W. A. Wright, 18328 Roslin avenue, so the room mothers can renew their efforts toward strengthening the El Nido parent-teacher association and creating a closer contact between home, school, and the community.

1017 Cerise, at 7:30 p.m.

Next Monday evening, January 18, a father's night will be held. Guest speaker will be Jack Metlock. His topic will be "Do We As Adults Expect Too Much From Pre-Schoolers." Parents interested in the nursery school or in the adult education evening classes may contact DeLane Cahow at FA 8-1638.
