"NEVER GIVE UP HOPE"... are the sincere words of comfort which Mrs. S. A. Broos (right) gave Mrs. Clifford Nelson, of 4127 West 177th st. as they met. Mrs. Nelson's husband was struck with polio five weeks ago and is recovering gradually in an iron lung. Mrs. Broos is the mother of little Donna, 4, who has recovered so well from the near-fatal polio attack suffered in October of 1953 and which claimed the life of her twin sister.

LOMITA BLVD. STORM DRAIN GOES TO BID

Supervisor Burton W. Chace disclosed today that a call for bids to construct the Lomita boulevard Storm Drain was approved by the County Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

Bids will be received up to 11 a.m. February 26, at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District at 2250 Alcazar Street in Los Angeles, Chace declared.

The Lomita boulevard drain estimated cost is $965,900.

"This vitally needed drain will absorb storm waters over an area of nearly 5000 acres, including the Lomita Business and residential districts, the Supervisor Chace said.

Narbonne High School, and the Torrance Municipal Airport,"
