VACCINATIONS

Councilman Spelman commented. "I haven't made up my mind but the matter should definitely be given much thought. I want to hear both sides of the question."

In answer to the question whether vaccinations may prove harmful to dogs, it was stated that there are no cases on record of dogs suffering harmful reactions as a result of anti-rabies shots in Covina, El Monte, Claremont, and South Pasadena which communities have compulsory vaccination ordinances, according to C. P. Harvey, chief of the county health and quarantine division.

Harvey labeled the Citizens Committee for Better Health, Inc., which has been actively supporting compulsory vaccination law for Los Angeles as a highly reputable organization whose facts are accurate and reliable.

the subject.

What may possibly interest Rolling Hills residents are the municipal services the city could offer. Goodman, who asked about these matters, said that he would report back to the board of directors and that Rolling Hills representatives would meet at a later date with the City Council.

No Discussion Yet

No official discussion of the annexation move has taken place, Richard Gifford, another board member told the Torrance Press. The possibility was slight that the matter would even be discussed at today's board meeting, there being "many other matters" to be taken care of first.

tired last week, began his career as patrolman on the local force in 1924. He was made head of the department of public safety in 1936. During his term as chief the force grew from a dozen men to a department of almost 50 officers.

Chief and Mrs. Stroh have moved to their ranch at Yucaipa where Stroh plans to raise livestock. The Strohs have a son, Jay, who is an officer with the L. A. County sheriff's department, and a daughter, Lucille, who is matron at the Compton police department. Both formerly served here.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron H. Willmore announce the birth of son, Michael Joseph, born on February 1, weighed 7 pounds and 3 1/4 ounces.

Fund-Raising Dinner Date Set By YWCA

Plans are well under way for the fund raising drive for the Torrance Young Women's Christian Association according to Nell Colburn, chairman.

While advance gifts have been coming in, the Capital Fund dinner is scheduled for Thursday, February 18, at 6:30 p.m. at the YWCA, 2320 Carson in Torrance.

"New Horizons in Brotherhood" will be the topic of a talk by Elsie Farris, well known attorney, world traveler and Soroptimist.

Dinner chairmen for the event which is a $10 a plate affair are Mesdames A. E. Palmer and Lee Stamps, both past chairmen of the Torrance YWCA. The meal will be served by Y-teens. Mrs. Warren Hamilton and Y-teens will take charge of the table decorations.

The drive planning committee includes: Nell Colburn, and Mesdames Warren Hamilton, Lee Stamps, Kenneth Clutter, Miles Booth, Minnie Solomon, and Charlotte Lukes.
