RABIES

the anti-rabies vaccine now available will not cause paralysis after vaccination of dogs, according to Dr. H. E. Pearson, professor of public health at U.S.C.'s School of Medicine. Dr. Pearson endorsed the dog vaccination anti-rabies ordinance.

Worry
Even if the dog is found, and discovered not to be rabid, "the big thing is the worry that the people go through," the health department spokesman said bearing out Mrs. Colby's experiences.

Once the symptoms of rabies appear in human beings, treatment becomes futile. Symptoms appear from ten days to several months after the bite.

It is nothing for a rabid dog to travel from East Los Angeles, where most of the cases occur, to Torrance within one day, it was disclosed.

Compulsory Vaccination
Los Angeles is now drafting a compulsory anti-rabies vaccination ordinance and Torrance's city councilmen have indicated that they, too, would look into the matter, stating that they would probably be in favor of such a measure, off-hand.

Great Difference
In St. Louis, during the six-month period after vaccination of 60,000 dogs, only 18 rabid dogs were found in the city in comparison with more than 300 must be submitted before a public utility can apply for increased rates. The last hearing in Los Angeles was held January 28.

Rates
If the new rates go into effect, Torrance phone bills will have the following average increase: one-party business phone, $3; one-party residential, $1.80; two-party residential, $1.30; four-party residential, 90 cents.
