EDITOR, WRITER, AND PUBLISHER is what Weaver Jones calls himself. Jones, a Torrance resident, makes the papers ever so often at unpredictable intervals. When the spirit moves him he drops his paint brush and takes up a one-man crusade against whatever he happens to be incensed about at the moment. Weaver Jones has an opinion on everything, it seems, and every opinion becomes a crusade. He has just given the world a piece of his mind again in a four-page paper called "Hot Shots" of which he had 35,000 copies printed for distribution. The main emphasis of this paper is on a new "medicine" which he discovered and which sounds like a cure for everything that ails you. But there are still lots of other things he writes about, like what's wrong with the world.

Two Receive
P-TA Award

Mrs. Bruce Howey and Cletus Nestlerode were awarded honorary life memberships when Waveria P-TA held its monthly meeting February 11. Mrs. Evar Jansson read the history of life membership and awarded the pins along with a novelty memento of the occasion. The awards were given in recognition of their service to the school and community. Mrs. J. Pene introduced the school's past presidents and presented each with a corsage and a small planter. Past presidents were: Mrs. D. Armstrong, 1925-1926; Mrs. R. J. Deurloo, 1938-1939; also 1942-1943; Mrs. J. Minon, 1937-1938; Mrs. B. J. Michels, 1944-1945; also 1947-1948; Mrs. Roettger, 1948-1949; Mrs. B. R. Conner, 1945-1946; Mrs. G. Ziske, 1949-1950; Mrs. McNulty, 1950-1951; Mrs. Glenn Hardcastle, 1951-1952; Mrs. Bruce Howey, 1952-1953.

Also featured on the program was a skit presented by students from Mrs. Erdmann's eighth grade, "P-TA Cornerstones." Lloyd Reist directed the school orchestra in four selections. During the business meeting the following nominating committee was named: Mrs. C. W. Johnson, Mrs. Walter Wild, Mrs. E. B. Pfau, Mrs. Richard Heitmeier. The association also voted on the division of first district into two districts. John Strom, the new vice-principal, was introduced to the association by the school principal, Dr. Vernon Sheblak. Winners of room prizes were Mrs. DeRosa for the upper grades and Mrs. Fanni Beasley for the lower grades. Hostesses were fourth grade mothers.

It is believed to be a marmot, according to Francis Fallon of the Humane Society. Fallon hopes the owner will call for "The Thing."
