THS 5 Drops Last Contest At Inglewood

By JERRY WESTMORELAND

Despite Bob Moon's last effort in high school basketball competition by contributing 27 points, Coach Welch's '53-'54 crew closed their season with a 63-55 loss to the powerful squad at Inglewood High.

By this loss, the Tartars were pushed out of a third place tie with opponent and ended the season in a tie for fourth place with Redondo, a team Torrance beat twice this season.

Torrance played a good game finale, but the overpowering terminated.

This loss left Torrance with a 4 and 6 league record and a 9 and 11 over-all standing.

All but two points for the Tartars were bucketed by seniors and the squad giving their last performance while in Tartar colors. These seniors are: Moon (28), Guerra (14), Farrar (11).

The final standing show Santa Monica, Beverly Hills, Inglewood, Torrance, Redondo, and Leuzinger in that order.

Edgell To Head Rotary Club

The Dominguez Rotary club held the annual election of officers at their weekly meeting of February 23, with results as follows: Bill Edgell, president; L. C. Griffiths, vice-president; Art Reeves, treasurer; Ted Broch, secretary; Carl D'Ambrosi and Joe Jackson, directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Glass of 1403 S. Catalina Ave. announce the birth of a daughter, Bette Joy. The new infant was born on February 26 at 7 p.m. in Torrance Memorial hospital and weighed 7 pounds and 8 1/2 ounces.
