

District courtesy night will be observed tonight, March 4, 8 p.m. when Torrance Chapter No. 380, O.E.S., meets in the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori avenue. Mrs. Ethyl Peverly is the chairman for the social hour which follows the meeting. All members of the chapter and Forrest G. Murdock, president of El Camino college, will serve on the program of the national convention of the American Association of Junior colleges in St. Louis from March 8 to 12. Visiting members of the Order are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Brownies of Troop 576 held a cookie-baking party at the YWCA on February 22, 9 a.m. Half of the members made sugar cookies, and the other half made peanut butter cookies. When finished, the cookies were served on the lawn in front of the YW.

Girls who took part in the cookie bake are: Charlene Alarcon, Barbara Tappin, Karen Clever, Anna Beth Blount, Judy Thomas, Judy Clutter, Diana Walters, Susan Smart, Kathie Reddington, Margaret Aarup, Margaret Sorenson, Tonya Silvester, Carolyn Hussey, and Sharon Lee Hopper. Mmes. Robert Sorenson and Ted Aarup are the troop leaders who attended.

Kids To Go Fly A Kite

The Torrance Recreation Department is sponsoring a kite-making class for all boys and girls interested in the art of making various types of high flyers. There will be a class at McManis Park every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 4 to 6 p.m. starting March 8.

There will also be a class at El Retiro Recreation Building starting Saturday, March 6 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. All boys and girls are requested to bring their own paper and string. All other materials will be furnished by the Recreation Department.

A number of comic books about Walt Disney's "Pinocchio" have been distributed to the schools. If you did not receive one you may pick one up at the Recreation Office, 147 El Proda, it was stated.

Dads are invited to attend these classes to help their sons build a kite. According to Less Breitenfeld, director in charge of the kite classes, a city-wide kite contest will be held at Torrance Park on March 20.

Visitors' Night

A visitor's night is scheduled to take place at 8 p.m. tonight March 4, when the International Women's Club meets at the Compton Community center. Young foreign-born women are welcome to attend the evening's program. Refreshments will be served.

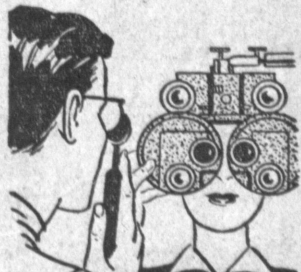

Further information about the club may be obtained from the president, Mrs. T. Clinkenbeard, FA 8-4710, or secretary, Mrs. H. Bingham, NE 1-4617.
