Scott Park Schedules Easter Week

An Easter egg hunt for all children on Saturday, April 17, will be the highlight of Easter week events at General Winfield Scott Park.

The first event will be an all-wheels day program on Tuesday, April 13. Ribbons and prizes will be awarded for the best decorated bike or wheeled vehicle.

An Easter hat parade will be held on April 14, at 2:30 p.m. Hats may be hand or commercially made and of any material. The children's spring flower show takes place on Thursday, April 15, and on April 16 there will be a contest for the best decorated eggs.

Easter Week Play Scheduled

Torrance Park will be open daily except Sunday during the Torrance school's Easter vacation, April 10 to 17, for supervised free play and scheduled sports activities, the recreation department announced today. The ticket office at the ball park has been converted into a sports office for Elmer "Red" Moon, city athletic director, and will serve as headquarters for the Easter week program. Rex Welch and Dick Leech of the high school's coaching staff will assist Moon in supervising the activities, it was disclosed.

Hours of scheduled play are posted at the sports office in the park and at the central recreation office on El Prado avenue.

will be the fourth annual Easter Sunrise service, to be held on Easter morning at 6 a.m. This is co-sponsored with the Avalon Village Community Church.
