

EVERY INCH A KING (AND QUEEN) Emerging victorious in the Easter baby parade contest are (l-r): Robert E. Andres and Marge Anne Coleman, king and queen of Spring;

Garey Redmond and Dennis Dial, King and Queen of Baby Week. A total of 240 babies entered the contest held in El Prado Park.

400 Witness First Annual Baby Parade

A crowd of more than 400 persons turned out Easter Sunday to watch 240 babies and tiny tykes of the Torrance area strut their stuff in the First Annual Easter Baby Parade, staged by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Hundreds of ribbons and prizes were awarded to winners of the various events by members of the Torrance Adult Club, who acted as judges. The awards were donated by the Torrance Adult Club and the Torrance Merchants Association.

Baby Royalty

Chosen as king and queen of Baby Week, May 1 to 8, were Dennis Dial, 22520 Leyte Dr., and Debra Redmond, 403 Harbor Hills.

Robert E. Andres, 2316 W. 164th st., was named King of

Spring, and tiny Marge Ann Coleman, of CCMO No. 6, took honors as the Queen of Spring.

The baby royalty was crowned on a throne banked with flowers supplied by Mr. and Mrs. M. Avollos.

Other winners of the various events were: Bluest Eyes: Marvin Bunden, Tommy Thompson, and Susie Davis. Darkest Eyes: Janice Mandick, Jo Anne Bradford, and Randy Beach. Longest Eyelashes: Steve Hendrickson, Randy Beach, and Christian Petty. Blondest Towhead: Elizabeth Woods, Barry Billings, and Nancy Johnson. Reddest Hair: Bernadette Martin, James Mock, and Leslie Congo. Fattest Baby: David Hunt, Debra Redmond, and Arthur Hulse. and Linda Redmond, and Sheryl Joe and Patrick Pittman. Best Tailored Costume: Robert Eandres, Pat Gaines and Nancy Killingsworth. Baby Twins: Pat and Mike Cameron, and Rick and Rene Beach. Tiny Tyke Twins: Debra and Sandra Hampton, and Marilyn and Marsha Pearson.

Scout Group Elects Heads

The Torrance Girl Scout Association held its monthly meeting at the scout house April 12 at which time the following officers were elected: Mrs. Adam Krauszer, membership nominating; Mrs. B. B. Ballprogram, education; Mrs. Elton English, troop organization; Mrs. Don Menger, camping; Mrs. Leonard Stamps, finance; Mrs. P. M. Crossman, public relations; Mrs. L. L. Meredith, helper on finance and troop organization.

Mrs. W. E. Walton, section chairman, spoke on the new set-up at Los Angeles Council and told of the new scout office at 1337 El Prado.

Mrs. Pat Steels was elected the permanent secretary of the group.

The next meeting will be held May 10 at 7:30 p.m. at the scout house.

HALLDALE MAY GO HALF-DAY

More half-day sessions may be in store for Halldale Ave. School next fall because of new tracts opening up in the area, it was disclosed by Principal Amanda Bonwell before a meeting of the Schooling Advisory Committee this week.

The group voted to work with other committees in Wilmington, Harbor City, San Pedro and Gardena to press for a speed up in construction of new schools needed in the area, Mrs. C. W. Sidwell, chairman, said.

The matter will be brought up next month when bi-monthly meetings of the various advisory committees are inaugurated, she said. Mrs. Sidwell, Mrs. B. R. Rush and H. T. Unander will represent the Schooling group.

The committee was told by Joe Goss, field representative for Councilman John Gibson, that work will soon start on the foot bridge at 212th St. near Denker Ave. Completion of the project is scheduled for May 1. Petitions for sidewalks and streets sponsored by the committee, with the assistance of Councilman Gibson, have been submitted for 222nd, 224th, 225th, 226th and 227th Sts. and Halldale Ave. A traffic signal is sought for Carson St. and Denker Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. MacHale, 2816 Carson St., announce the birth of a daughter, Janet Lee, born on April 11th, at Torrance Memorial hospital, and weighed 8 pounds and 4 ounces.

Patrinos Promoted To M-Sgt.

A Torrance man has been promoted to the highest enlisted rank in Southern California's 40th Infantry Division, according to Major Bernard A. Sword, division signal officer.

He is William J. Patrinos, 25, of 21130 Dalton avenue, Torrance, who now wears the stripes of a master sergeant in the 40th Signal company.

Patrinos, unmarried, has served with the Southland National Guard division since 1950. His service included two years in the Far East during the Korean conflict.

He currently is a fulltime employee of the California National Guard, holding the job of administrative assistant for the signal company at its Los Angeles armory.

Patrinos is a graduate of Compton Junior College and of UCLA. He received the Army Commendation Ribbon for his outstanding service during the Korean fighting.
