Women's Church Council To Hold Fellowship Day

Invitations are being issued this week to all women in this area to attend the first meeting of the new Torrance Council of the United Church Women on May 7, according to Mrs. John Parks, press chairman for the organization.

The meeting will be held for observance of May Fellowship Day, and will be held at the First Christian Church, 2930 Eldorado street.

The program will begin at 1 p.m., following a box luncheon during which tea, coffee and cookies will be served, Mrs. Parks said.

Mrs. Arthur G. Solomon will be installed as first president of the organization at this meeting. Mrs. John L. Taylor will lead a panel discussion on the topic, "A Christian Woman's Trusteeship."

Churches participating in the new Council are, First Christian Church, Evangelical United Brethren, First Methodist and St. Andrews Episcopal, the press chairman said.

World Scope Of YWCA Will Be Subject Of Talk

Mrs. Bartlett B. Heard, of Berkeley, member of the National Board and the World's Council of the Young Women's Christian Association will speak at a tea to be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Warnock, on Tuesday, May 4 at 2 p.m. according to Muriel Blackstone of area publicity.

Mrs. Heard, recently returned from the Council Meeting of the World's YWCA in Switzerland and a tour of YW's in the Middle East has a firsthand picture of the world wide aspects of this international organization, Mrs. Blackstone, stated.

Special Speaker At Foursquare

By special invitation of the pastor, Rev. James P. Lowen, an excellent speaker is scheduled for the Sunday, May 2nd service at 10:45 a.m. at the Torrance Foursquare Church located at 1207 El Prado.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Earl W. Dorrance, who has been District Supervisor for the past 15 years of the Foursquare Churches of Southern California.

Baptist Church Set For Special Week Of Study

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church will observe Christian Home Week with a special week of study for every member of the family. The week begins this Sunday. The group study will begin on Sunday evening at the Training Union Hour at 6:30 p.m. and continue through Thursday. The week night studies will begin at 7:30.

The pastor will speak at the 11 a.m. daylight saving time on the subject "There is a Time to Repent." The evening message by Rev. Wells will be "The Big Sin of Littleness." The morning messages by the pastor Robert A. Wells have been dealing with the life of Christ before the Resurrection. This is a second sermon on his teachings after that event. There will be a baptismal service on Sunday night.

C.D.A. Observes Ninth Year Here

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lyle O'Hara, Court St. Catherine No. 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, held their ninth annual Communion breakfast last Sunday. During the breakfast at the Palms Restaurant on Carson Street, the group heard an address by Mr. Joseph P. Lorenzen, parole officer at State Prison, Terminal Island. Mr. Lorenzen outlined the work of parole officers, and also reported on the expanding facilities of various penal institutions in California, it was disclosed.

Assisting Mrs. O'Hara on the committee were Mmes. Leonard Young, Michael Donish, and Mrs. Ann Miller.

CAMPAIGN STAGED BY METHODISTS

A campaign to reach all members of the local congregation of the WALTERIA Community Church is now in progress, it was announced by Rev. Gene Gehres, pastor.

The object of the campaign is to better acquaint church members with the work of the Methodist denomination's World Service, and to give each member an opportunity to share regularly in humanitarian work around the world and to support his church in its local and conference responsibilities, the pastor said.

Rev. Gehres also stated that letters and literature would be mailed to members this week preparatory to "Loyalty Sunday" to be observed May 2. Members not present on Sunday will be contacted personally, thereby acquainting every member with this important campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Merkel 23821 Park St., announce the birth of a son, Duane Earl, born on April 22 at Torrance Memorial hospital and weighed 9 pounds.

Sunday Morning Topics Announced

Rev. Andrew Duty announces that the topics for next Sunday's services will be "Watching" at 11:00 a.m. and "Bible Light on Gambling" at 7:30 p.m. at the WALTERIA Baptist Church located at the corner of Park and Newton Streets.

The young people will conduct a singspiration at the close of the evening service. Bud Albert will show pictures of last year's camp.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Box, 1836 W. 257th, Lomita, announce the birth of a daughter, Anne Ruth, born on April 20, at Torrance Memorial hospital and weighed 8 pounds and 8 ounces.
