

CALIFORNIA BANK COMES TO TORRANCE

California Bank is pleased to announce that at the close of business Friday, May 21, 1954, Torrance National Bank becomes a branch of California Bank.

The new office in Torrance will fill a long standing desire of California Bank to bring its services to this progressive and growing community. There will be no interruption in the excellent service afforded by Torrance National Bank. Present active officials and employees will remain to serve the interests of customers as usual.

With resources of more than Six Hundred Million Dollars, California Bank brings to the Torrance area all of the specialized facilities of a large metropolitan bank.

Continued patronage of present friends and customers is invited, and an invitation is extended to others to make use of the facilities of the new Torrance Office of California Bank.

California Bank

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT
INSURANCE CORPORATION

TORRANCE OFFICE: 1329 Sartori Ave., Torrance, California