

"HAVE A TICKET, SHERIFF" . . . Harry Van Bellehem, director of recreation, hands Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz a ticket for the opening Babe

Biscailuz Invited To Attend Babe Ruth Opener, June 19

The Babe Ruth baseball league will start its season with a festive parade through downtown Torrance, Saturday, June 19, at noon, to be followed by games held in Torrance Park, at Arlington and Santa Fe.

The parade will start at the corner of Post and Cravens, move across Post to Cabrillo and down Marcelina. From there it will head for the park.

Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz was personally invited to attend the opening game when a delegation of Torrance civic leaders visited the sheriff's office last week.

Biscailuz said he would try his best to attend or else be represented through his undersheriff, Pete Pitchess.

Those who visited Biscailuz were Harry Van Bellehem, recreational director; Police Chief Willard Haslam; Mayor Nick Drale, and Al Gianni.

Biscailuz praised the Torrance police department for the work it has been doing.

"The sheriff's department considers Torrance one of the 'clean' cities,' Biscailuz said. 'Much credit for this goes to the recreational activities provided in Torrance.'
