Food Giant Plans Big Breakfast

All you need is a good appetite and 25 cents to enjoy the world's best breakfast, according to Curt Long and Clyde Bulard, manager and assistant manager of the fabulous Food Giant Market, 423 South Hawthorne boulevard, Hawthorne, which is sponsoring a big 25 cent feed Saturday, June 12, 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on the Food Giant parking lot.

According to Long and Bulard, a giant breakfast will be served consisting of orange juice, pancakes, eggs, sausage, butter, syrup, toast, preserves, milk, coffee, junior donuts and cookies, to every person who donates 25 cents to Rotary Boys Scout Troop Number 283.

The entire proceeds of the breakfast will go toward the Scout Troop's fund for furthering youth activity.

Tickets for the Food Giant breakfast may be obtained from members of the Scout Troop or at the breakfast itself on Saturday morning.
