San Clemente Chosen For Festive Girl Scout Camp

The ocean at San Clemente State Park was a backdrop for the impressive Court of Awards held last Sunday at 2:00 p.m. by Girl Scout Troop Number 1299, sponsored by Fern-Greenwood P-T.A.

Coming down the coast Saturday in a seven car caravan, the girls, their parents, and leaders Mesdames Adam Krauszer, Paul Bischoff, and Gordon Arrasmith, set up an overnight camp.

Parents arrived the next afternoon, when seventy-five people were on hand for dinner which the girls had prepared.

The leaders began the ceremony and presented eighty-one badges to the girls. The highlight of the day was the awarding of first class badges to the following girls: Donna Arrasmith, Paula Bischoff, Joyce Cannon, Mardell Clayton, Diana Cook, Sharon Giles, Susan Higdon, Diana Hinchaw, Diana Hunter, Betty Jack, Barbara Krauszer, Loretta Robison, Virginia Sandstrom, Susan Severin and Carol Shinoda. Two of the scouts were noted for perfect attendance Sharon Giles for three years of no absence from the meeting, and Paula Bischoff two years.

To conclude the ceremony the mothers served cup cakes and all present sang "Happy Birthday" to Paula Bischoff, Mardell Clayton, Loretta Robison and Carol Shinoda. The girls then placed their money in a container to be given to the Juliette Low Fund.
