Community Breakfast To Be Held Saturday

This Saturday, June 26, is the big day for the semi-annual community breakfast held at the Jim Dandy market, Crenshaw and Torrance blvds. from 7:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

A total of 3000 tickets are now on sale by members of the sponsoring scout troops and may also be bought at the time of the breakfast Saturday, according to Marlan "Shorty" Modland, manager of Jim Dandy market.

There will be hot cakes, sausages, cereal, toast, jam, and all the trimmings at this all-you-can-eat breakfast, according to Mrs. Ralph Robertson, scout leader.

Numerous prizes which will be given away. Prizes are contributed by local merchants. Winners need not be present at the time the prizes are given away.

Piano entertainment will be provided by Nadine Nickol. Also present will be contestants in the "Miss Torrance" and "Miss Community Fair" contests. The 1954 Ford donated by Oscar Maples to the scout center fund-raising campaign will also be on display. It will be given away within the next few weeks.

THS GRAD DROWNS IN STORM

Bill McGinnis, 34, who graduated from Torrance high school in 1939, was drowned during a storm last week in Ocean Park, Washington.

McGinnis, a commercial fisherman, was drowned when his fishing boat became lost in the storm. He was the only one aboard.

His body was discovered three days later.

McGinnis is survived by his wife, Marie, and his father, Lloyd E. McGinnis, who live in Washington.

Other survivors are: three daughters in Modesto; Mrs. L. A. Davis, sister-in-law, Wilmington; and Virginia Bridges, sister, Wilmington.

The signs will read: "Use caution when you drive, be alive in '55." The six-sided signs will be white with red letters.

Kiwanis Club To Sponsor Caution Signs

The Kiwanis club is having 50 traffic caution signs made to be posted throughout the Torrance residential areas as one of the club's civic projects.

The signs are being made by General Petroleum and sold to the club at cost.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Polston, of 23665 Ward St., announce the birth of a daughter, Constance Jean, June 8, at Torrance Memorial hospital, weighing 7 pounds and one ounce.
