Keystone Woman's Club Meet Told

Last week the Woman's club of Keystone held their board meeting and a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Christensen, 1520 Marcelina avenue, Torrance.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. H. Parker, president.

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Hulbert Smith, tendered her resignation as she is moving to the Lakewood Plaza district, and board members feted her with a handkerchief and card shower.

Pending the next regular election in October, Mrs. Pauline Tourtellot was appointed corresponding secretary pro tem.

The next board meeting was set for August 11 at the home of Mrs. O. O. Gray, 940 Roman street, Wilmington.

CARD PARTY

The St. Francis Guild of St. Margaret Mary's Parish in Lomita is sponsoring a card party tonight at 8 p.m. in the school on Eshelman avenue near 255th. The public is invited.

MRS. IKE McTEE

... head Lioness

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Carlstrom of 3754 W. 175th St. announce the birth of a daughter, Tricia Diane, born on July 11 at Torrance Memorial hospital and weighed 8 pounds and 14 ounces.

Mrs. McTee Installed As Head Lioness

Mrs. Ike McTee was installed as president of the Lioness club last week during joint installation ceremonies with the Lions at the Western Club.

Charles Roberts, district governor, officiated as installing officer, other Lioness officers including Mesdames H. J. Osborne, first vice-president; Abe Robinson, second vice-president; Hugh Bowman, secretary; Al Isen, treasurer; Ruel Moulton, bulletin editor; and J. H. Ritchie, hair puller.

The installation, preceded by dinner, was followed by dancing.

Homeowners To Hold Street Dance

Celebrating the arrival of street lights in the Torrance Gardens and Plaza district, Felbar avenue between Torrance boulevard and Opal street will be the scene of a gala street dance to be sponsored by the Torrance Gardens and Plaza Homeowners Association Saturday night July 24.

A juke box will provide the music for the affair, and there will be no admission charge.

Janeene Colombo of 902 Felbar avenue, the Homeowners' candidate for the Queen of the Torrance Community Fair, will reign over the celebration. Janeene, 16, is a native daughter of Torrance.

Owners of the more than 700 homes in the area are eligible to attend the dance, financed by a part of the proceeds of the recent homeowners' dance at the Hermosa Biltmore.

Torrance Youngsters Visit Camp Stevens

Enjoying the new Episcopal Church campsite at Camp Stevens this week are four Torrance girls, Cora Vash, Margaret Cayton, Kathy Jones, and Joan Stewart. Camp Stevens is located at Julian, near San Diego, and offers swimming, sports, craft, and hiking programs.

Local youngsters enjoying the facilities of the camp last week were Larry and Laila Willson, Patsy Travis, Charles Cayton, and Barbara Brady.

WOMAN'S CLUB JUNIORS HOLD FIRST JOINT AREA MEETING

The Beech avenue home of Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass was the setting recently for the first joint meeting of Woman's Club Juniors from the entire South Bay area. Ideas on membership, programs, and ways and means were exchanged and discussed by representatives from Torrance, San Pedro, Wilmington, Gardena, Manhattan Beach, and Redondo Beach.

Mrs. John Kemp of the Torrance Junior Woman's club was chairman of the event, which featured dinner amid table decorations of daisies and yellow and green color theme.

Torrance Group

Torrance contingent attending were Mrs. C. A. Smith, president, and her board members including Mesdames J. A. Barrington, R. H. Tolson, R. R. Dexter, Douglas Baldwin, J. Helphand, R. E. Beecher, Robert Mowry, R. G. Leech, George Blahnik, and John Kemp.

Attending as advisors from the Torrance Senior club were Mesdames Grover C. Van Deventer, R. Bingham, and E. L. Snodgrass.

Area Representatives

Representing the Dianias of Redondo Beach were Mesdames Paul Yates, president; Lois McKie and Rice Isenman.

From the Dolphins of Manhattan Beach came Mesdames Marilyn Jackson, William Sachau, president, and Betty Turton.
