

"MANY FIELDS . . . ARE OPEN." Harry Ruby, counselor at El Camino college, advises Darlene Spencer of job opportunities in the fields of English and the fine arts. Miss Donna Lettore of 1417 Post ave., will return to El Camino for her sophomore year of work in September.

MAIL DELIVERIES TO BE EXTENDED

Mail delivery services in Torrance will be extended to 16 new tracts as of July 27.

Residents in the new tracts will be informed by letter of the new services this week.

Authorization for the new services was received by Torrance Postmaster Clara A. Conner from the Honorable N. R. Abrams, Assistant Postmaster General.

In order to insure publicity, the following provisions must be met:

In order to insure delivery certain provisions must be met, Mrs. Conner stated.

Door Delivery
Foot service with delivery to the door requires:

1. Acceptable walks from street paving to house.

2. Approved mail receptacle or slot erected not less than 30 inches above floor where carrier stands to serve box.

3. House numbers on the house (not on curb).

4. Mail receptable and house numbers should not be obstructed by plants, shrubs, milk bottles, children's toys or other obstacles.

5. Patrons should keep up dogs in accordance with the current "Leash Ordinance." Carriers cannot be required to make deliveries where dogs are allowed to run at large.
