In Korea

Pvt. Joseph M. Sandoval, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sandoval, 1715 W. 251st St., Lomita, recently arrived in Korea for duty with the 25th Infantry division. Private Sandoval, a former employee of the Raeco Engineer-ing Co., of Torrance, entered the army in January of this year and completed basic training at Fort Ord.

New P-TA Board Busily Planning Future Programs

Although many members of the 232nd Street P-TA have been enjoying vacation here and out of state, and others have been entertaining out of town visitors plans for the coming school term are well under way, ac-cording to Mrs. Fred E. Bassett, president.

As the school is new, much is to be done, and the program is being planned under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Madison, first vice-president. Chairmen busy planning for the coming year are Mmes. Carl Brooks, parent education; Paul Whipp, membership; Kenneth Fortney, youth services; Chester Simpson record; Glenn Meyers, hospital-ity; Francis Meehan, commu-nity chest; Ray Long, room rep-resentative; Robert Ross, ways and means; Darrell Martinsen, health and welfare; and Claude Kennedy, publicity.

Officers elected to assist Mrs. Bassett are Mmes. Madison, Roy Striegel, second vice president; J. Arthur Clark, secretary; Donald O'Neill, treasurer; Dar-rell Martinson, auditor; and Glenn Meyers, parliamentarian.

EL NIDO BABY SHOW SET FOR TOMORROW

Friday, August 6, El Nido Playground will hold its first Baby Show. Babies and pre-school tots will vie for ribbons in three age groups.

In each group ribbons will be awarded to the babies hav-ing the darkest, reddest, cur-liest, longest hair; bluest, dark-est, longest lashed, prettiest eyes; fairest, most tanned, most freckled skin; best postured; most talented; best behaved. Ribbons will also be awarded to the youngest baby and the baby who comes from farthest away.

An outstanding boy and girl will be chosen from each group and awarded a rosette. From these finalists a boy and girl will be chosen as King and Queen of El Nido. Judging will begin at 1:30 p.m.

The El Nido Playground is located at 186th street and Hawthorne boulevard. This event will be co-sponsored by the Los Angeles County and Torrance Recreation Depart-ments, and the Torrance Unified School District.

REBEKAHS HOST PRESIDENT CELINE EWERS

Trio Rebekah Lodge 240 so-cially entertained Celine Ewers, district deputy president of dis-trict 84. The deputy and her marshal, Patricia Martin, were presented with red rose cor-sages and organ dy aprons trimmed in red. The deputy instructed the officers of the new state president's wishes.

Members of Trio lodge and their families are expecting to attend the annual Odd Fellows picnic to be held at Recreation park, Park avenue and East Tenth street, in Long Beach, Sunday, August 8, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Games, entertain-ment and beverages will be fur-nished, but each family will take their own picnic basket.

Trio Rebekah lodge will hold a potluck supper for members and families to begin at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday evening, Au-gust 11. It will be followed by a regular business meeting at 8 p.m. at the California hall, 1932 Pacific Coast highway, Lomita.

Warren T. Roseland has been assigned as teacher in the Tor-rance Unified School District for the coming school year.
