Virginia Buchanan Weds Wayne Hollins

The theme was pink and white . . . a pink and white flower banked candlelight altar . . . white satin ribbon tied with pink flowers along the aisle . . . and attendants carrying pink bouquets, as Miss Virginia Buchanan was married to Mr. Wayne C. Hollins last week in the Methodist church.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Buchanan of 1507 W. 215th street, and the son of Mr.

and Mrs. Raymond R. Hollins of 21131 Brighton avenue, exchanged rings and vows before the Rev. Wayne Kobes of Thousand Oaks.

Attendants
Matron of Honor Mrs. Wayne Kobes, carried out the pink theme in her waltz-length tulle over taffeta dress, as well as in her headpiece and carnation and rose bouquet.

Varied pastel shades were employed for the identically colored gowns of the other bridal attendants, who were Misses Janie Moffatt, Jackie Richmond, Carol Malloy, and Janice Crabtree.

Little Delores Prenevost wore sunny yellow organdy as she scattered the rose petals in the path of her cousin and uncle, who escorted his daughter to the altar.

Male Entourage
David Srall acted as best man for the groom, and heading the contingent of ushers was Gene Walker, while assisting him were brothers of the bride, Robert Buchanan and Woodrow Buchanan Jr., brother of the groom, Glenn Hollins, and Kent Harding.

Junior member of the male cortege was small Robbie Tipple, who carried the pair of rings on a pink cushion.

Mothers of the couple joined in the pink theme, both matrons wearing pink rosebud corsages, and pink accents to their navy blue ensembles.

MY'S Members
The former Miss Buchanan was a graduate of Narbonne High, and also attended UCLA. She was a member of the Methodist Church MY'S, as was her husband, who was at one time the group's president. He is a graduate of Torrance High School.

The young couple were feted by approximately 200 friends and kin at the reception held in the new annex of the church, immediately following the ceremony.

After a honeymoon in Northern California, the new Mr. and Mrs. Hollins will travel to Kansas, where they will reside in the city of Baldwin, home of Baker University, where he is studying for the ministry.

No. Torrance Fuchsias Win Top Honors In Show

Visits New Jersey Kin

Mrs. Elsie Rush, of 1244 East 213th street, Torrance, recently returned from Neptune, New Jersey, where she and her mother, Mrs. Ella McGill, visited her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Burdge.

Quartet Sings At Open House

Representing Walteria Park on the talent show held during the Recreation Department's Open House recently were Linda Baker, Elene Pestoff, Shirley Hinsley, and Mary Burke. The quartet is known as "The Four Teens." They were heard in a number called "Do Lord."

GREEN-YELLOW DECOR USED FOR FESTIVE STORK SHOWER

No baby buggy could be found large enough to accommodate all the lovely gifts showered upon Mrs. Richard Fransworth recently when she was feted with a stork shower by Mmes. Lora Sorensen and Neil Peterson at Mrs. Peterson's 1212 Cranbrook avenue home.

To solve the problem, one of the local supermarkets came to the rescue with one of their likewise huge grocery carts . . . this was camouflaged to look like a baby buggy, with pastel green and yellow crepe paper intertwined basketwise over and around its bulk.

Carrying out the green and yellow color theme was a clever bassinet-shaped cake of green and yellow . . . its frosted blanket decorated with luscious yellow roses.

Gathering with the hostesses to shower the anticipated new member of the Fransworth household were Mmes. Annabella McCrey, Mike Gonta, Benjamin Trujillo, Clancy Sharp, Larry Knight, Clarence Tyler, Albert Moreta, Soledad Daland, and Miss Shirley Norton.

Winners of prizes during the games were Mrs. A. McCrey who won a spoon holder, and Mrs. Soledad Daland who was awarded a spice rack.

The congenial gathering topped the evening with loaf sandwiches, relishes, stuffed celery sticks, and coffee served with ice cream and the yummy eye-catching cake.

Wolcotts In Detroit

A leisurely vacation was planned by the Glen Wolcotts of 1634 Elm avenue, who left recently for Detroit to pick up their new Chrysler.

Sinz-Irvin Vows Said During Nuptial Mass

A 200-year-old gold band heirloom ring handed down from four generations, again became the memento of a memorable family occasion for Miss Barbara Frances Irvin. She wore the ring last Saturday pinned to her bridal gown on the occasion of her marriage to Joseph Lawrence Sinz.

The 9 a.m. Nuptial High Mass was celebrated by Rev. John V. Hegarty at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in Lomita. The voice of soloist Don Ann Long added beauty to the solemn occasion as she sang the "Ave Maria," "On This Day," and "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

Old-Fashioned Lace Gown
The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Irvin of 24023 Eshelman avenue, was given in marriage by her father. She was a radiant picture as she walked down the aisle, her floor length bridal gown being of old-fashioned lace over taffeta and net, with a scoop neckline and long, pointed sleeves complimenting the moulded bodice. A half-cap of lace trimmed with seed pearls confined her net fingertip veil, and her bouquet was a cascade of carnations and lilies of the valley centered by a white orchid.

Twin Flower Girls
Preceding the entourage, 4-year-old twins, Kathleen and Mary Ann Deis, dressed in short bouffant organdy pink dresses, scattered tiny blue flowers from the baskets they carried.

Maid of Honor Karen Peterson wore an aqua ballerina length gown of net over taffeta, and she carried a cascade of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt Sinz of 1428 Olive street, Long Beach, was attended by Benjamin Sinz, brother of the bride, as best man, while ushers were Stan Campbell and Bob Bowman.

Grandparents Present
Two-hundred guests gathered at the Lomita VFW Hall for the reception following the ceremony, where Mrs. Tom Colby presided over the guest book. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Cain, grandparents of the bride, from Boothwyn, Pa.

For the occasion, Mrs. Sinz chose a pale blue dress complimented by the deep and dark lavenders of her orchid corsage. Mother of the bride, Mrs. Irvin, received guests in a gown of lavender lace over taffeta, graced by the white orchid corsage she wore.
