LOLLIPOP HUNT GETS TOP BILLING AT PARTY

Cake, ice cream, and favors were the order of the day recently in the yard and patio of Tom and Alice Cobb of 3526 West 187th street, when their daughter, Jeanette, celebrated her third birthday with a host of little friends ranging in ages 3 to 6.

The lollipop hunt was the highlight, as its popularity was pretty unanimous with all the tots.

Those helping Jeanette celebrate the attainment of the ripe old age of 3 were her two sisters, Linda and Ellen, Tommy and Margaret Pomerleu, Linn Peterson, Michael and Steven Radnovich, Jerry and Dickie Monsker, Karen and Eric Pierson, and Bunny and Jeanne Trudel.

Highlight for the grown-ups was the efficient performance of the cleanup crew . . . two bantam chickens, one hungry pup, three kittens, two guinea pigs, and one tortoise. The only snafu occurred when one of the guinea pigs got stuck in a box of Crackerjacks.

Jeanette's daddy took motion pictures of the event, and according to her mother the reels should depict some rare activity, especially on the part of the pets.

Ugland-Davis Rites Read At St. Andrew's

Miss Betty Elizabeth Davis was a picture of nuptial elegance as she walked up the aisle of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church last Sunday afternoon to be married to Mr. Richard Arthur Ugland, with Rev. Arthur Bello officiating.

Bride's Gown Described

Imported lace fashioned the bride's ankle length gown, the long-sleeved bodice discreetly embellished with tiny rhinestones and pearls at the waist and on the sleeves. The sweet heart neckline was matched by the heart-shaped headpiece holding the fine veiling, and also having pearl and rhinestone touches. Glowing satin of the full skirt shone through several layers of tulle covered with the lace overskirt. White rosebuds formed the bouquet the bride carried on a white Bible.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Ugland of 1513 Madrid, Torrance, was attended by James George Johnson as best man.

Active in Clubs

The new Mrs. Ugland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Braddock of 23228 Huber drive, Torrance.

NEWLYWEDS Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dearborn prepare to cut exquisite wedding confection at their reception for 250 following wedding in Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church last week.

MARTHA SWAFFAR WED IN CANDLELIGHT RITE

Miss Martha Swaffar and Mr. Robert Dearborn were married at an eight o'clock candlelight ceremony in the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church last week, as the Rev. Robert Wells officiated amid baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums, and stock.

Chantilly Lace Gown

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage at the double ring ceremony. Her gown was of white nylon tulle and net over taffeta, the bodice covered with Chantilly lace, seed pearls outlining the oval neckline, and the long sleeves ending in call points at the wrists. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and her illusion veil cascaded from a fitted cap of Chantilly and seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of stephanotis and split carnations centered with an orchid.

Attendants

Mrs. Lurene Ihde, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, and wore a gown of pink net over taffeta. Her bouquet was of pink roses and carnations.

Mrs. Lois Ihde, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Marlene Cornthwaite were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were of blue net over taffeta, and they carried carnation bouquets.

Best man was Lawrence Dearborn, cousin of the groom, and Bob Steffenson and Blane Gasser served as ushers.

Proceeding their aunt to the altar were tiny Jimmie and Teresa Ihde, who served as ring bearer and flower girl.

250 At Reception

Two hundred and fifty friends and kin congratulated the couple at a reception held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

The former Miss Swaffar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Swaffar of 19955 254th street, Lomita. She attended Lomita schools, graduating from Narbonne High School, and is presently employed at the Torrance Escrow and Guarantee company.

Mr. Dearborn also attended the Lomita schools, and lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stachowiak.

Martin Wins Again At Pan Pacific Aud.

Local hairstylist Martin of Martin's House of Beauty at 25217 1/2 Narbonne avenue, Lomita, has again captured trophies at a Pan-Pacific Auditorium show. Last spring he walked off with first prizes at the Home Show. This time it was the "Glamorama" show that has been in progress at the huge Los Angeles auditorium.

MISS MARY HUNTER

Out of a large number of hairstylists applying from San Francisco, Sacramento, San Diego, and Southern California, only 20 top coiff artists were chosen by the judging board of the Glamorama panel. Among the 20 was Martin, who won first trophies last Monday in all three categories . . . hair color, hair styling, and permanent wave.

Model for Martin's winning hair color was Miss Mary Hunter, whose short, naturally straight and brown hair, was fashioned into a dramatic contour swirl with a flamingo flame tint. The attractive color and style was chosen to best depict the modern mood of hairstyling today.

Miss Hunter, a very attractive blonde type, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hunter of Lomita, and is a graduate of Narbonne High School. At the Glamorama show she was one of a group of 11 girls in the hair color competition. For the show she wore a full-skirted crinoline lined dress of taffeta in a royal blue which was a very complimentary contrast to the high color tint of her hair.

Mrs. Kay (Wm. J.) Garrity of 1327 Acacia street, Torrance, was the tall, attractive brunette model for Martin's hairstyling and permanent wave techniques. Her short, dark hair was stunningly done in a high French flair with a smooth tie-in neckline. Kay is well known in Torrance, and has modeled fashions on various occasions for many local clubs.—Adv.

Home Show Set By YW

The first Home and Garden Show ever to be staged in Torrance will take place in the Scoring of 1955 under the sponsorship of the Torrance branch of the YWCA, as the highlight of their celebration of the YWCA Centennial to be observed on a national and international scale.

Mrs. Mervin Schwab was recently appointed by Miss Nell Colburn, chairman of the local YWCA, to head the Centennial for Torrance.

Tentative plans for the Home and Garden Show, which will include a local tour, are now being formulated by Mrs. Dean Sears and Mrs. Walter Levy, outstanding participants of the Torrance YWCA program for the observance of the 100th birthday of the organization.
