

Mary Glenn McCaffrey Wed In Palos Verdes Nuptials

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM R. WADDELL, the former Miss Mary Glenn McCaffrey, leave the Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church following noon wedding last Saturday.

Nova Thompson Weds E. L. Carr

Traditional white lilies and lighted tapers formed the backdrop for the informal morning wedding of Miss Nova Leah Thompson and Mr. Eugene L. Carr, who exchanged rings and vows last Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Greenwich Chapel of Long Beach.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Howard Benjamin, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Bernard Carr, Jr., was his brother's only attendant.

Reception at Carr Home — Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Carr, Sr., 1264 West Fifteenth street, San Pedro. Names of the guests were taken by Mrs. Bruce Smith, and among the guests was Mr. John Carr of Los Angeles, grandfather of the groom.

The bride's mother received guests in a full-skirted pale yellow cotton taffeta gown designed with lace inserts, and enhanced by the black accessories and corsage of yellow roses she wore. Mrs. Carr wore a pale pink lace gown with white accents, complemented with a corsage of deeper toned pink roses.

Torrance Hi Graduate — The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Thompson of 1408 Crenshaw boulevard, Torrance, is a graduate of Torrance High School, and is employed in the Redondo offices of the Edison Company.

For her wedding Miss Thompson chose a charming street length gown of white organdy and around her neck she wore a strand of pearls that were worn by her mother at the latter's wedding. Her headpiece was a tiara entwined with Stephanotis, and she carried a spray of the same fragrant blossoms on a white prayer-book.

In the sylvan setting of the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes, Miss Mary Glenn McCaffrey exchanged rings and vows last Saturday afternoon with Mr. William Robert Waddell, as Rev. Richard A. Dawson, pastor, officiated beside the huge flower-filled baskets and candelabrae.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Walter of 24257 Ward street, Waverly, is a graduate of Torrance High School having been a member of Torrance Job's Daughters and the Y-Teens. She is presently employed at the Pacific Telephone Company in Los Angeles.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Frank Waddell, of 445 5th street, San Pedro. He graduated from San Pedro High School, and is now attending USC, where he is a chemical engineering major, and affiliated with Theta Xi Omega.

Junior Attendants — Preceding the entourage down the white ribboned aisle, was little 2½-year-old Jeffrey Riffard, cousin of the groom, in a white satin suit matching the cushion on which the two wedding bands rested.

The bride's small cousin, 3-year-old Patty Ann Balch, was flower girl in a bouffant short-skirted version of the attendant's seafoam green dresses. She wore a matching head piece and carried a white basket which carried the traditional rose petals.

The bridal attendants all wore seafoam green taffeta gowns of ballerina length. The bouffant dresses were complemented by coral colored pennies which matched the ribbon on the cascade bouquets of pale pink gladiolus. Half hats of taffeta and tulle, and their shoes were all of seafoam green matching the gowns.

Miss Faye Gasset was maid of honor, and acting as bridesmaids were cousins of the bride, Misses Nancy Lynell Reese and Peggy Lou Balch.

Jerry Lee Waddell was his brother's best man, and groomsmen were Jack Bloomingdale and Joseph T. Larkin.

Bridal Gown Described — The bride wore a full length gown designed of Chantilly lace over four layers of tulle, which in turn covered shimmering white satin. Seed pearls outlined the flowers of the lace on the moulded bodice which was sleeveless with scooped neck. In lieu of sleeves, the bride wore 16-button gloves of white tulle which was appliqued with lace over the hands and arms. Her waist length veil of illusion was held by a Juliet cap of lace edged in seed pearls. On a white lace covered Bible, she carried white orchids with cascades of lilies of the valley.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding, in the church patio, where approximately 150 friends and kin gathered to congratulate the newlyweds. Mrs. Walter received guests in rose colored taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Waddell chose for the occasion a pale pink gown appliqued with white beads, her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses, and she wore navy blue touches in her accessories.

Dance Planned

The Chi-Rho Club of Nativity Church held their weekly Wednesday night meeting last night in the Parish Hall. Plans were discussed last night of their next project, which is to be a dance. Last week the club enjoyed another skating party at the ice-rink in Paramount.

Well Selected Wardrobe Sparks School Enthusiasm

By Mary Barrett, Woman's Editor

School days are back again, and the careful and proper selection of the back-to-school wardrobe will help boost the self-confidence as well as the interest and enthusiasm of the young student.

CRISP PLAID CHARMER, Puritan-collared with velvet ribbon tie and hold everything side pockets is available in teen sizes, with Advance Pattern 6381.

For early fall's warmer weather, the smart dark cottons in plaid, check, or woven weaves are popular with the young set as well as their mothers. These cottons don't spot so easily as the plain colors, and most of the new cottons require little ironing. The only soil catcher might be the touch of white at the collar or cuffs, but these touches add so much sparkle, they are practically indispensable.

ALL SET FOR SCHOOL in this adorable plaid and plain shirtwaist with touches of crisp white pique at prim collar and cuffs for the 3 to 6-year-old.

Coffee-Donuts To Be Served At 259th Pl. School

Coffee and home-made doughnuts will be served to mothers of newly enrolled students by PTA members at 259th Place School, Monday, September 13, it was announced by Mrs. W. E. Zell, PTA president.

Classes for all students will begin at 8 a.m. and new students and their parents should meet in the auditorium for assignment to classes. All parents are urged to stay for refreshments and get acquainted.

wale corduroy should be stressed for the round little figure.

For the pencil-figured little miss the frilly-collared blouses... rounded yokes to lend width cover too-thin little arms... bouffant petticoats. Large plaids, paler cottons, and bulkier treatment for separates combine to add chunkiness where it is desirable.

Orlon, dacron, and the other "miracle" fabrics, as all mothers know, are wonderful inventions, and easy to care for, they're a natural for the hard wear given clothes by active youngsters. Lorette, one of the popular orlon and wool combinations, comes in luscious plaids, stripes, and plain colors that lend themselves so beautifully to tailoring. Jackets, skirts, and slacks will be basic separates that should be included in the school wardrobe.

Corduroy, the perennial favorite, is being shown more than ever this year. Very smart and eye-catching separates such as jumpers, and skirt and jacket combinations, are available in all sizes from kindergarten to college in all the glorious new colors and red, this year's fashion favorite.

The little corduroy vest is a darling of the very young, and darling of the very young... both masculine and feminine. It can be bright red, or one of the eye-catching plaids, to be worn with a contrasting or matching color in skirt or slacks.

Camouflage Figure Defects

Keep in mind, mother, when shopping for your little girl, her figure defects, if any. Designers of junior miss fashions have taken into consideration the "awkward stage"... too chubby, or like a little string bean. The chubby miss does not require a special size so much as specific design... simple neckline... smooth bodice... graceful flare. Dark-toned cottons and the finest pin-
