CDA STAGES GARDEN PARTY AND FASHION SHOW

—Press Photo—

Fashionable Event Set For Today At Felkner Residence

The gardens of Mrs. Laura Felker at 1010 Beech avenue will graciously open to the public today as Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America present their fashionable annual benefit garden party and fashion show. The affair will open with a dessert luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Garden Party Chairmen
 Co-chairmen for this event, one of the most outstanding of the year, are Mmes. Laurence Derouin, Gerald Lowe, and Leroy Armstrong. This busy trio has been lining up the tasty cakes and beverages, making arrangements for the models to be groomed and fitted, and readying the lovely array of door prizes which include a permanent wave donated by Emma Roberts, popular Torrance beauty.

Models Named
 Modeling ensembles from the Gay Shop will be Mmes. William Hardesty, Cecelia Young, A. G. Gross, and Charles Barrett. They will show suits, sportswear, dressy and casual styles from the popular Torrance shop.

Junior models will be 3½-year-old Suzanne Moeder, 4-year-old Andrew Rudnick, Gayle Hardesty, 7, Richard Derouin 8, Janice Dabbs 12, and Carol Armstrong who is 16. The sextet will model fashions from Guys 'n Dolls children's and teenagers' departments.

Following the dessert luncheon and fashion show, card games will be featured in the lovely garden setting.

Stage Door Highlights Jr. Initiation

"Opening Night" was the theme at the Woman's Clubhouse last evening as the Torrance Juniors held their formal initiation ceremonies and a catered dinner amid decor in keeping with the theatrical theme.

As each new member entered she was handed a white glove from a black hat. On the glove was the name of a woman famous in the theatrical world. Throughout the evening each member was known by this name, and the place cards were also marked with the same non de plume.

Black and gold was the color carried out in the table centerpiece decorated with the drama masks of comedy and tragedy. The printed program were done in orchid and black, and overtures of well known Broadway musicals were played as the new members entered.

The clever decorations were arranged by the committee headed by Mrs. Alta (Sid) Gans assisted by Mmes. Helen (Richard) Heath, Helen (B.A.) Tatum, Mary (D.) Porter, Wilma (James) Halle, and Dotty (Charles) Briner.

Attending as a guest was Mrs. Ruth Rogers, president of the Senoir Woman's Club.

Fashion Show Features Sally's Shop

Sally's Dress Shop of Redondo Beach will feature a fashion show of fall ensembles tomorrow afternoon at the Redondo Beach Masonic Temple, California and Ruby streets. Sponsoring the affair are the ladies of Messiah White Shrine, who will serve a luncheon at noon preceding the style showings. Car will be played, and hostesses have promised a surprise method for the choice of prize-winners.

Chairman for the occasion is Worthy Scribe, Mrs. Cleo Fate, assisted by Worthy High Priest-

School Holds Coffee Social

Coffee and doughnuts were served the parents of children enrolling for the first time at Harbor City School. The executive board of the P-TA which holds this social semi-annually, feels that this get-together enables the parents to feel at home at the school, thereby encouraging them to visit the school frequently. P-TA ladies assisting with the serving and registration of new students were Mesdames G. S. Andreotti, D. G. Cheek, Ray Groover, Michael Travers, and James Alexander.

Korean Returnee To Be Honored

Corporal Bernard Francis is returning home this month from a year's service in Korea with the Air Force signal corps. He will be the honoree at the home of Ed Williams, 18436 Regina avenue, when the North Torrance Voters, Inc. hold their monthly get-together at the Williams home.

Girl Scout Roundup Held Successful

The careful planning of Mrs. Don Menger, Waleria neighborhood chairman for girl scouts, and her committee, resulted in a successful Roundup held in the Waleria Park last week.

Over one hundred girls and adults stood at attention as Mrs. Maze Moulton had the girls prepare the colors. Seven scouts representing the number of active troops in the area presented the American as well as the Brownie and Girl Scout flags.

Mrs. Robert Waegner led the "All Sing" that followed and Mrs. Menger gave an informal address to the group.

The committee was composed of Mesdames Jack Smith, J. W. Bebbing, Wm. Nannery, Frank T. Howe, Lillian Doage.

Mothers' Tea At 259th Pl. School

A kindergarten Mother's Tea will be held on September 24 from 10 a.m. to 11:20 a.m., according to Frances Dastarac, principal of 259th Place school.

To be held in the auditorium, the program is sponsored by the health department but will also include safety and general school rules. Mrs. Myrna Drov is, school nurse, will speak. Refreshments will be served by P-TA members.
