P-T-A Board To Attend Sessions

Mrs. W. E. Zell, president of 259th place P-T-A, urged all of her board members to attend the school of information on September 23 at the First Methodist church at Sixth and Grand in San Pedro. The meetings, which are held from 9:30 a.m. to noon, are designed to acquaint each chairman with the duties of her office. Methods of procedure and helpful suggestions are given so that each may handle her chairmanship successfully.

New Teachers

Miss Frances Bastarac, school principal, has announced the names of teachers who are new to the school this semester. They are Mesdames Mary Ehrlich, Marjorie Luxenberg, Thelma Lamb and Eunice Ball; Messrs. John Calkins, John Wren and John Chelinger. Mrs. Lamb is to substitute for John Garton until he is recovered from his recent accident and can return to school.

Miss Dastarac also stressed the safety problem which again arises with the beginning of school. She urged parents to cooperate with teachers in seeing that children cross streets at corners at all times.

The board of the Lomita-San Pedro Council has several of the 259th place P-T-A members in chairmanships. Those who are active in both groups are Mrs. C. L. Wilson who is president of the council. Those who have been chosen to help her are Mesdames R. L. Pratin, newettes; J. O. Powers, magazines; and F. Deck, ways and means. Miss Frances Dastarac is the school principal representative.

Leland Street School P-T-A Begins Year

Leland Street School P-T-A began its school year recently when the executive board held their first board meeting of the school year.

Rated at this time were Mesdames Edward Kaseroff as Red Cross chairman, Joyce Wood as publications and emblems, Thomas Mardesich for table decorations and flowers, James Walker for civil defense, Bernard Ramsden as recreation and Mrs. Jens Skomsvold to serve on the hospitality committee.

Harry Sams, principal, announced that the school, so far, does not have to be placed on half-day sessions.

It was also announced that adult education classes will include dressmaking, ceramics, and a new class in lampshade making. People interested in attending these classes should register at the school as soon as possible.

Narbonne P-T-A Board Meet Told

Narbonne High School P-T-A began its fall activities with a meeting of the executive board in Torrance Park recently at which Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president, presided.

Mrs. J. O. Blackmon, program chairman, presented her theme for the year—"Pulling Together at Narbonne." She also listed her monthly topic titles which were accepted by the board.

Some important future events outlined were the September 23 School of Information slated for the San Pedro First Methodist Church, the September 24 paper and map drive, an executive board outing on October 15, and the October 23 rummage sale.

A potluck luncheon followed the business meeting.

AFSIS MEET TO PLAN BUDGET FOR 1955-56

The Torrance Chapter, American Field Service International Scholarship met recently at the Riviera home of Mrs. Willard Keys, ways and means chairman, to formulate plans for raising funds to bring at least two foreign students to Torrance for the 1955-56 school year.

Two additional members have been added to the AFSIS committee here. Mrs. Cal Lippincott will serve as corresponding secretary, and Mrs. W. A. Wright will assist in public relations. Anyone wishing information on AFSIS may call FA. 81391 to contact Mrs. M. M. Schwab, chapter chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Guthrie, of 18902 Kornblum, announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Kay, weighing 7 pounds and 1 ounce.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Tamble, of 22517 Black Court, Torrance, announce the birth of a son, Anthony Robert Tamble, weighing 6 pounds and 4 1/2 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan R. Campbell, of 2011 1/2 Andrea Ave., Torrance, announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Ann Campbell, weighing 7 pounds and 15 1/2 ounces.

OES HONORS EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS

Past matrons and past patrons of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, were honored last Thursday night when the regular meeting of the Chapter was held in the Masonic Temple on Sartori avenue. Gladys Mothersell and Frederick Cook presided as worthy matron and worthy patron. Special escort was given Worthy Matron Florence Vielleave, and the Worthy Patron Vincent Vielleave, who presided during the short business session.

Past matrons and past patrons filled all offices, and those who served during the evening were Frances Buckley, Vivian Cook, Myrtle Clayton, Mildred Edwards, Jeannette Clark, Billie Kerber, Edna Babcock, Persia Fess, Alethea Smith, Joan Simpson, Garnet Satterfield, Roy Winters, Ernest Mosher, Floyd Mead, Archie Lewis, Gordon Mothersell and Fred Bever.

Phyllis Peverley was chairman for the evening and introduced Jason Lillegraven, who played a group of selections on the xylophone. Jason is the talented son of Arthur Lillegraven, junior past patron of Playa Linda Chapter.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the chairman and her committee, Ethyl Peverley, Frances Peverley, Letha Wells, Fern Mead and Jennie Designe.

Birthday Party Celebrated At Walteria Church

The Community Methodist Church of Walteria held its annual Birthday Party Sunday night, September 19 at the church. A potluck dinner began the evening's festivities at 5 p.m.

Included in the evening program was a history of the church presented by Mrs. Carl Cramer, and a movie "The City Story."

Last Sunday Rev. Gene Gehres delivered the third of a series of seven sermons on "Our Lord's Prayer." This series of sermons about the Lord's Prayer have been planned to make the knowledge of this prayer more meaningful to daily living, said Pastor Gehres.

P-T-A Assists Enrollment At 186th Street

Members of the 186th Street P-T-A assisting in the registration of children on the opening day of school were Mesdames Claud Hill, Ronald Powell, Robert Parmer, W. A. S. Douglas, Earl Beck, J. T. Evans Jr., James McMillen, Ben Cothran, Raymond Stith, and Ernest Tanner, and Messrs. Bill Rose and Cecil Schuell.

Over 100 parents registering their children were served coffee and breakfast rolls, and were greeted by the hospitality committee consisting of Mesdames Carl J. Smith, Harold Sprankle, LeRoy Shore, and A. B. Pond.

Sisterhood Holds Social Gathering

Members, prospective members and friends of Temple Menorah Sisterhood, joined recently for an evening of festivities at a "Friendship Party." Mrs. Arnold Cowan, president, gave a welcoming address, stressing national and international interests of Sisterhoods. The group then heard Rabbi Samuel Chomsky who encouraged the cooperation of the Sisterhood for the proposed new temple and social center in Torrance.

Information concerning Sisterhood activities may be secured from Mrs. Katz at FR. 4-3797.

Girl Scouts Pay Visit To Marineland

Girl Scouts of Troop 1299, sponsored by Fern-Greenwood P-T-A, will resume their fall activities with a trip to the Marineland of the Pacific, recently. Lunch on the beach will follow and the group will collect specimens of sea life and work on Badges.

The girls are under the leadership of Mesdames Adam Krauser, Paul Bischoff and Gordon Arrasmith.

Mr. and Mrs. James Oswald of 2529 Sierra St., announce the birth of a son, Donald Henry, weighing 8 pounds and 9 1/2 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Carroll of 1860 Torrance Blvd., announce the birth of a daughter, Lynn Carroll, weighing 8 pounds.
