BUFFET SUPPER SCENE OF ARTS-CRAFTS MEET

The Arts and Crafts Club met at the Compton home of president Mary Ulmers recently to formulate plans for the organization of a junior group under the direction of Bettie Thomas.

Ann Wood shared the hostess honors with Miss Ulmers, as a buffet dinner was served to Maybel Banks, Cora Bohrer, Helen Carpenter, Florence Childs, Vivian Cook, and Leila Everly.

Others sharing the Ulmers-Wood hospitality were Persia Fess, Ruth Hardin, Mary McDonald, Emily Meddleton, Bettina Miller, Ethyl Peverley, Frances Snodgrass, Bettie Thomas, and Hazel Ward.

Also present was Lois Halloran, a friend of Miss Ulmers, who entertained the group with a review of her recent European trip.

Lorraine Armata Married In Scenic Wayfarers Chapel

SCENIC BACKGROUND: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Salvatore Carcerano, the former Lorraine Veta Armata, pose following their wedding Saturday at the picturesque Wayfarers Chapel in the Palos Verdes hills.

Amid the scenic beauty afforded by the glass Wayfarers Chapel in picturesque Palos Verdes hills, Lorraine Veta Armata, daughter of the William Armatas of Natick, Massachusetts, was married last Saturday evening to Joseph Salvatore Carcerano. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Gown of White Satin
The bride's gown was white satin, the molded bodice artfully draped with the folds of the drapery ingeniously interwoven around the wide decolletage and throughout the brief capped sleeves. The full ankle length skirt was covered with white lace, and the bridal veil was held by a shirred headpiece of tulle. She wore a necklace and earrings of pearls, and carried a nosegay bouquet of orchid and stephanotis.

Her only attendant was her maid of honor, Miss Julianne Carcerano, the groom's sister, who wore a gown of lavender and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and lavender snapdragons. Attending the groom as best man was Richard Zuelch.

Reception at Groom's Parents
Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Carcerano of 2830 Gramercy place.

Saturday Nite Hoedown Set By Moose

The Torrance Moose Lodge is having a "real old fashioned hoedown" complete with caller, this Saturday night from 8 p.m. to midnight, with James Stiles, chairman of the committee in charge.

The dance will be held at the lodge hall, 1744 Carson street, and those attending should come "comfortable . . . in blue jeans and calicos," Stiles says.

Square dances are held every other Saturday night at the Carson street hall, with "round" dances on alternate Saturdays.

Magazines, Books For Hospitals

The North Torrance Valiants held a general meeting recently at which time they discussed plans for a three-week drive to collect magazines and books for the hospitals. Anyone interested in contributing should call FR. 2-1623.

The Valiants also discussed their recent hay ride and beach party when they rode from North Torrance through Palos Verdes to Cabrillo Beach where they held their weenie roast.

Fashions To Accent California Living

"Winter Fashions to California Living" will be the banner for the 12:30 luncheon and fashion show to be staged in the Civic Auditorium October 28 by the Torrance Woman's Club.

LUNCHEON HELD BY GUILD

The Ladies' Guild of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church will hold a pay luncheon in the Guild Hall next Wednesday, October 13, at noon. Hostesses will be Meses. Alice Spehger, Mary Lewis, G. A. Mothersell, and Harold Woodman.

Following the luncheon the regular monthly meeting will begin at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Ludwig Miller presiding. Mrs. Howard McDonald will conduct the devotionals.

During the meeting plans will be discussed for a rummage sale to be held in the Guild Hall at Arlington and Marcelina on October 21 and 22.

DAV To Hold Joint Meet Next Week

The South Bay Chapter and Auxiliary 92 of Disabled American Veterans have called a special meeting for Friday, October 15, to discuss a Halloween Party and Forget Me Not Drive being planned jointly with the members of the Chapter and Auxiliary.

Mrs. Henry Niles, commander

"WINTER FASHIONS" . . . Coordinator Cleo Lambo, stands by with handy advice as Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt, decorations chairman, makes telephone arrangements for forthcoming winter style show being staged by Torrance Woman's Club in the Civic Auditorium October 28.

Harbor City Circus Fun

Pop-corn, snow cones, cotton candy and treasures from the grab bag filled the hands of the children, parents, and teachers at Harbor City School as they eagerly watched the John A. Strong one ring circus, featuring Eddie Spaghetti, the clown, Hi-Ho Silverware, a Shetland pony and trained dogs when they appeared here last week.

Assisting John Strong's staff were Mesdames George Weeks, Carl Gregory, Leland Van Buren, James R. Alexander, G. S. Andreotti, James Triffon, Michael Travers, Charles Bradford, Charles Riggs, D. G. Cheek, Harry Baillie, Ray Groover, Glen Deatherage, and Dean McIntire, all active P-T-A members.

Masquerade Dance Set

The Alan Richard Hall on Carson street will be the scene of a gay Halloween masquerade dance Saturday night, October 16, as the Jayettes stage the costumed affair to begin at 9 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m. Tunes for dancing will be provided by the "Harbor Lites," popular local orchestra.

All Jayees, Jayettes, their friends and guests may now purchase tickets for the affair by calling Mrs. Lorry (Wm.) Hebestreit at DA. 6-5472.

Chairmen Ratified

The executive board of the Howard Wood P-T-A met recently at the home of Mrs. Dana Houston, 1804 - 245th street, Lomita. New chairmen ratified at that time included: Mrs. W. Reich, record book; Lee M. Polick, registrar and coordinating council representative; and Mrs. Gordon Jones, publicity and parliamentarian.
