in the morning from county jail on a drunk charge, according to Officer Nash.

Lloyd took off on foot following the crash but was stopped by Bill McEwen. Upon being threatened with a knife by Lloyd who wanted to know what authority McEwen had to stop him, McEwen ran back to the scene of the accident and told officers where to find Lloyd.

Kelley received minor injuries.

Head-On

Crashing head-on Monday night in the same vicinity as the above accident were cars driven by Mrs. Juanita Lederhos, 22, of 23337 Pennsylvania avenue and one driven by Jimmy M. George, 21, a sailor.

Mrs. Lederhos and her daughter, Antonia, 5, were taken to Harbor General Hospital for treatment of minor injuries and then released. The two suffered multiple lacerations and abrasions, it was stated.

The collision occurred when Mrs. Lederhos, going east on Sepulveda, tried to make a left turn onto 228th street. She was struck by George's car which was coming west on Sepulveda, according to Torrance police reports.

Both cars were extensively damaged.

Sailor Critical

In another crash, a sailor was injured critically when the car in which he was riding crashed into a fire hydrant on Pacific Coast highway at Paseo de Gracia late Sunday night.

Listed as critical at Harbor General Hospital is Guy D. Lazzaro, 18, a sailor stationed at San Diego. Lazzaro suffered concussion and multiple lacerations of the face.

He was a passenger in a 1953 Jaguar.

Driver of the sports car was Reed A. Walker, 29, of Beverly Hills, who was cut on the face and hands.

The car left the pavement and hit the fire hydrant, according to police reports. Thousands of gallons of water spilled out over the pavement and flooded the car.

Kansas City. She took over Forester's business, and while driving on her route through the sandhills of Nebraska, her car broke down. Seeking help, she met a friendly rancher who came to her rescue. Their subsequent friendship budded into romance, and she married the kindly homesteader Bowring.

Varied Interests

Eva Bowring, in her early

60's, still keeps an active hand in the operations of the ranch, pursues her hobby of antiques, and pilots a plane... all this incidental to her enormous responsibilities in the nation's capitol.

Her small grandsons here, Ronnie and Jimmie Forester, are quite excited over their grandmother's forthcoming visit. Four-year-old Ronnie however, was heard to say, "I wish grandma'd bring her horses."

Scout Leaders At Defense Session

Mrs. E. Carl Osterlind, leader of Girl Scout Troop 1293, represented her troop as she attended the recent Civil Defense Workshop in Torrance. The workshop covered health, welfare, and medical services. Troop 1293, comprised of girls of junior high school age, will be trained for the Red Cross program of food, clothing, and shelter.
