186 Homeowners Ask School Traffic Signal

Petitions signed by 183 Torrance Gardens and Plaza homeowners requesting a manually controlled traffic signal at Fern ave. and Torrance blvd. will be presented to the City Council at its next meeting, it was learned this week.

The request comes because of the "numerous near accidents" which have happened at that intersection and because of the eventual widening of Torrance boulevard.

The signal is requested in addition to the present crossing guard and is not intended to replace the guard.

Several types of signals will be recommended ranging in cost from $205 to $590.

Air Force Post

A/1C Alfred L. Long, son of Richard Long, 1417 West 216th street, Torrance, is returning to the United States from his duty station with the U.S. Air Force in the Philippines for an assignment with the 1611th Air Transport Wing at McGuire Air Force Base, N. M.
