

'Miss Rabbit' of 1955 To be Chosen Friday

"Miss Rabbit of Tomorrow, 1955" — that's the title to be bestowed on the winner of the beauty contest sponsored by the Rabbit Raisers of California. Members will see "Miss Rabbit" crowned at Knott's Berry Farm, Friday, December 3.

Acting as one of the judges and there to crown the winner will be Torrance's Sandra Lea

Constance, who fell heir to the "Miss California" title this summer and who has also had bestowed upon her the honorary title of "Miss Rabbit of 1954." The rabbit raisers' convention will include dinner, to be followed by the beauty pageant which will be held on the stage of the Birdcage theatre. Following the pageant, convention

Salvation Army Week

Salvation Army Week has been declared in Torrance for the week of November 28 through December 5, according to a proclamation, issued by Mayor Nick Draie.

members will be entertained by Birdcage players presenting a good old-fashioned melodrama and olio.

The beauty pageant is being produced by Catherine Coleman who is also the producer of the Birdcage theatre show.

CUTE LITTLE BUNNY... Sandra Lea Constance, who has collected a string of beauty titles including that of "Miss California," was this week named honorary "Miss Rabbit of 1954."

COUNCIL BRIEFS

the proposed ultra-modern shopping center across the street caused the Council to set the matter aside at present.

NURSERY: After writing a letter to the Department of Social Welfare and upon being informed that two additional supervisors have been sent to study the request for the renewal of a license for Guys and Dolls nursery, the Council decided that it could take no further steps since this was a state matter and thus outside the Council's jurisdiction. The Council was informed by City Manager George Stevens that renewal of the license has been refused.

LIQUOR LICENSE: Oral and written protests were received concerning the Council's recent stand opposing issuance of a license for a proposed cocktail lounge and businessmen's luncheon room at Crenshaw and Torrance boulevards. As a result of the Council's stand, it was claimed, the Board of Equalization refused a license to Will Jacks, Inc. The Council voted to forward the newly submitted material and testimony to the Board of Equalization for its consideration.

company is an undesirable industry in the location where it is.

Mayor Nick Draie suggested that Fitzgerald contact the Fire Department, Plumbing Department, and others who originally objected to the plant and then submit their recommendations to the Council.

Councilmen Victor Benstead and Mervin Schwab both seemed opposed to rescinding the Council's previous ruling.

READY TO BE LAUNCHED

CAUSE TO BE HAPPY... Rupert L. Bucklew of 1711 W. 236th st., Torrance, found himself the surprised owner of a Chris-Craft sail boat given away as part of Clark's grand opening celebration at the new market, Hawthorne and Pacific Coast Highway. Helping to launch him on his way are (l) Jim Solo, manager, and Dick Allen (pushing), general supervisor of Clark markets.
