Fruitcakes And Yule Ornaments Sold On Order

Plans and progress of the sale of homemade fruit cakes and Christmas tree ornaments will be the subject at hand during the next meeting of the Nativty Altar Society, next Tuesday, December 7, in the parish hall.

Past Presidents Honored At Womens' Club Luncheon

Santa Claus and his famed reindeer pranced merrily down the center of the main table at the Woman's Club luncheon at 12:30 in honor of the club's past presidents.

The decorations, arranged by Mesdames J. A. Isenbrandt and A. R. Fiorelli, further carried out the Christmas theme with gilded pinecones, tiny snow-laden trees, and winter greenery throughout the tables.

Los Fiestadores Precede Dance With Tango Lessons

Los Fiestadores believe in going to a dance well prepared . . . and what better way is there, than holding an hour's dancing session with a professional instructor! That's exactly what this group did last Saturday night as members gathered for the hour preceding their Fall Football Dance at the Portuguese Bend Club with dancing instructor Bill Williams from Hollywood, taking lessons in combined mambo and tango.

The Bend Club was appropriately decorated with gaily colored pom-poms, and at each door was a goal post embellished with bright college colors. Each member was given an individual name tag that looked like a miniature pennant, and costumes for the occasion were sport togs or tie in with the football theme.

The Fall Football Dance was planned by a committee including Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Morton, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clayton. Winning the door prize, a Santa Claus tom and jerry set, were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Blakley, and introduced as new members were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Almond.

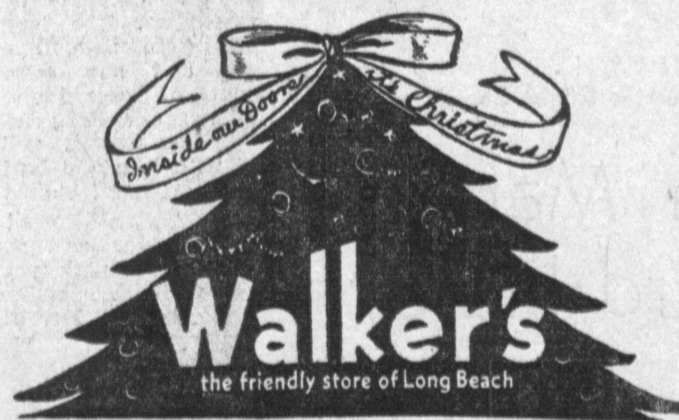

Following the dance the entire group was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Eastham at their 1533 Addison road home in Palos Verdes.
