Hornets Buzz Seaside Seals, 27-13 Stinger

Coch Freddie Solis had his Hornets flag football team geared to a high pitch on Thursday evening of last week, as they closed out their Junior League season with a 27-13 win over the previously undefeated Seaside Seals.

The losers, coached by Bill Denning and Robert Dollarhide, finished the season all tied up in the standings with Bill Elliott's Central Torrance Demons, who won their last game by a 7-18 score over Lloyd Harline's Watteria Bruins.

A playoff game for the Junior League title will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, December 9, on the Watteria field.

A stalemate also developed in the Midget League following a re-check of the games won and lost.

It was found that the Nativity team had gone into a tie with the Sea Lions, by defeating that team in their last meeting.

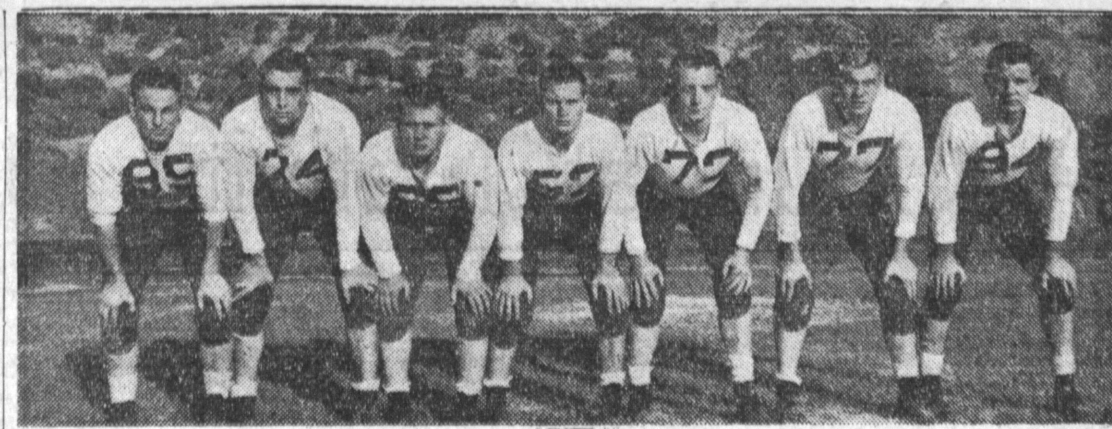

Each team won its last scheduled game last Thursday, Nativity trouncing the Wildcats, 47-6, and the Sea Lions subduing McMaster Park's Cadets, 21-13.

The playoff for this league will also be held at Watteria Park Thursday, as a preliminary to the Demon-Seal encounter. Kickoff time is set for 7 p.m.

THE STARTING FORWARD all for the El Camino Warriors who battle the Hinds Eagles, of Raymond, Mississippi in Saturday's ninth annual Junior Rose Bowl game. From left: Norm

Becker, Fabian Abram, Jim Clark, Roy Benstead, Jim Reynolds, Gary Malloy, and Ken Cornell. Stout defense of this line held opponents to only 40 points all year.

WARRIERS CLASH WITH EAGLES AT JUNIOR ROSE BOWL CLASSIC SAT.

El Camino's Warriors versus the Eagles of Hinds, Mississippi, is the menu for this year's ninth annual Junior Rose Bowl game to be played Saturday, December 11, 1:30 p.m., in the famed Arroyo Seco saucer.

The sponsoring Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce presented the names of El Camino, Compton, and Mt. San Antonio for the west, while Hinds, Trinidad State, Colorado, and Kilgore, Texas, were the eastern nominees, when the eleven man Board of Managers put their collective heads together, Sunday, at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

Norm Verry's Warriors improved their chances of selection when they upset powerful Bakersfield, 30-19, in a Thanksgiving Day tussle for their ninth consecutive victory in an undefeated season.

Potent Force

In selecting Hinds, the committee passed over high scoring Trinidad and once beaten Kilgore. General feeling found the members of the selection committee favoring the potent competition the Eagles have faced, plus their high yearly standings.

Neither team has played in the Jr. Rose Bowl before. Both teams have identical 9-0 records for 1954. Coach Joe Ranfroe's Eagles have averaged 32 points per game while allowing only eight for the opposition. El Camino, strong defensively, have held their opponents to only 4.4 points per game while garnering 18.8 for themselves.

Teams

The Warriors are bulwarked by the sling-shot arm of Joe Contestabile, hard-running Roger Metoyer, and rugged tackle, Fabian Abram. The Eagles have rallied on a powerful ground attack featuring Olin Renfro, Gordon King, and Charley Nourrier. Earl Leggett, 275 pound tackle, anchors the line.

Mudhens Peck At Preps 21-14

The Watteria Mudhens flag football team moved a step closer to the Torrance Recreation Pee Wee League championship last Monday at McMaster's park as they eliminated the second place Preps, 21-14, in the first game of the evening.

The Trojans moved into a third place tie with the Preps by virtue of a 20-6 win over the Panthers in the second contest.

In the other league games, played at Watteria Park, the Bees whitewashed the Eagles, 39-0, in the first contest, and
