

Allied Gardens Christmas Decoration Contest Dec. 22

Judges for the Allied Gardens Christmas outdoor decoration contest will be Mayor Nick Dralle, and Councilmen Willys Blount and Mervin Schwab, who will judge the displays December 22, it was announced this week.

Prizes will be awarded for the most outstanding outdoor decorations or indoor displays that are visible from outdoors, according to George Fowler, Allied Gardens Homeowners' contest chairman.

Decorations must deal with one of the following three themes to be eligible for the contest: Religious, lights, children (Santa Claus, snowmen, and so forth).

Three prizes will be presented for each of the three themes. The three first prizes will be

The Mudhens, Waleria Park's Boy's Flag football team, coached by Bill Clary, defeated Coach Ted Goudy's El Retiro squad, 41-0, in Monday's first game at Waleria, to win the Torrance Recreation Department's Pee Wee League Championship for the 1954 season.

The champs compiled an enviable record in their march to the top. They tallied 245 total points, allowing the opponent teams a meager 33, and they were the only team in the city-wide program to complete the season without a loss.

They also set a one game scoring record by virtue of their 67-0 early season win over the Walruses.

In the second game, the Panthers, under Coach Pat Malone, were unable to advance despite their game battle with Coach Bob Thornton's Walruses, the final score being a 12-12 stand-off.

At McMaster's Park, Freddie Solis's Bees put the clincher on second place, with a 38-19 win over Vern Clary's McMaster Preps. Coach Logan Brown's Trojans tied down third place with a 36-7 conquest over Lloyd Harline's Waleria Eagles.

Final Pee Wee Standings:

Waleria Mudhens	7	0
Pueblo Bees	6	0
Can. Torrance Trojans	5	2
McMaster Park Preps	4	3
Seaside Walruses	2 1/2	4 1/2
Waleria Eagles	2	5
Patronella Panthers	1 1/2	5 1/2
El Retiro Park	0	7
