Supervisors To Decide Victor Zoning

The Victor zoning plan, recommended by the County Regional Planning Commission, will be submitted to the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors.

The Victor area is a small unincorporated area bounded on the north, east, and south by Torrance and on the west by Redondo Beach.

The plan for the 650 acres of land calls for unlimited, commercial zoning along Hawthorne avenue and on corners of Torrance boulevard, Valeris, and Del Amo avenues.

The property on the north side of Torrance will be mostly zoned for multiple residences, while the interior of Victor would be agricultural with a minimum lot size of 7000 square feet.

A small area would be zoned for manufacturing to allow the operation and possible expansion of the 85 oil wells now in existence.

George Powell, planning secretary for Torrance, worked on this plan with the commission staff.

More Out-Of-State Gas Sought

Canadian natural gas is involved in a three-way deal to bring more out-of-state gas into California, as announced today simultaneously by Southern California and Southern Counties Gas companies, Pacific Gas and Electric company and El Paso Natural Gas company.

The announcement was made locally by F. M. Banks, president, Southern California Gas company, and Guy W. Wadsworth Jr., president, Southern Counties Gas company.

Under terms of letters of intent signed by the parties to the agreement, El Paso Natural

Thayne In Air Force Training

A/3c Ronald E. Thayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thayne, 1028-2-223rd street, Torrance, is now assigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi, the electronics center of the United States Air Force.

Airman Thayne is a student in the radio & radar maintenance course.

Keesler is located in Biloxi, Miss., on the Gulf Coast. In its role as a technical training center it provides both USAF and Allied Nations personnel with skills in the electronics field needed in today's Air Forces around the world.

Airman Thayne came to Keesler after completing basic training at Park AFB, Calif.

DEAR EDITOR....

Favors Stricter Oil Field Law

(The following letter has been sent to the Torrance City Council. It calls for a stricter oil field ordinance as presently proposed by the Council. Editor's note: Editor, Torrance Press:

In view of your hearing on the proposed oil well ordinance for Torrance, I would like to call your attention to the condition of the oil well at the southwest corner of Arlington and Sepulveda (Lot 1 in Tr. 639), of which the undersigned is part owner of the land.

This well, being at the corner of a busy intersection does not give the motoring public a very good impression of the Torrance Oil Field, and since the oil well operator has insisted that we can use this land only for grazing or horticultural purposes (even though zoned C-2) we cannot improve this property.

There appears to be two large oil ponds, or sumps which is not adequately fenced. The oil well, a real antique, is only 100 feet from the road and none of the moving parts are guarded, there is junk equipment all over the lot, all creating a very "attractive nuisance" and a large residential tract is just across the street.

I feel that an oil ordinance as you propose is a minimum one necessary to protect the public as well as the property owner who finds himself "stuck" with a perpetual oil lease with practically no revenue.

Yours very truly,
GERALD L. ALTER,
President Alter Realty and Insurance.

Successful Show

Editor, Torrance Press

The JayCettes of Torrance wish to express their sincere appreciation and thanks for the wonderful publicity given us on the Hobby, Art and Flower show held May 6, 7 and 8 in the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

This year the show surpassed in number of entries and viewers that of all preceding years, and it is the opinion of our club that you were largely responsible for the success of the show with the pictures and articles you published each week on behalf of the show.

It is our desire in co-sponsoring a project of this type to create interest in this community and surrounding areas, as we feel it brings the people of this vicinity closer together with mutual interests and enables them to meet their neighbors and work together in a common endeavor for the benefit of our community.

We feel you have helped us achieve our goal.

Yours very truly,
JayCettes of Torrance
(Signed)
MRS. JACK SMITH
publicity chairman.
